Auto Insurance Rates Up; Youths Hit Hard

If you drive a car, it's going to cost you more this year.

Increases in insurance rates were announced Wednesday by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Association.

These two organizations reflect the rates for bodily injury and property damage liability insurance and insurance to cover loss or damage to the insured car itself.

And how much will your rates go up?

In Contra Costa County it will cost you $78 this year as compared to $69 last year for full comprehensive and $50 deductible collision coverage if you own a low-priced family car with no male drived under the age of 25 years.

If you lived in San Francisco it would cost you $93 as compared with $78.

IF YOUR CAR fits into the same classification, that is non-business and no young male drivers, you will pay $10 more for $5000 bodily injury per person, $100,000 per accident, and $5,000 property damage insurance.

To put these figures into percentages, tne statewide average rate level for liability insurance will be increased by 20.9 per cent and the material damage rate level will go to 13.8 per cent.

Of course, rate changes will vary with the locality of the insured and the age of the driver and the use to which the vehicle is put.

The National Bureau commented:

"Cars with no male operators under age 25 and which are not used to go to work (family cars) are the least hazardous class of risks and therefore enjoy the lowest rates.

"For these cars rate increases range for $5 to $18. If such cars are used to go to work and travel a distance of 10 or less road miles one way, increases range from $5 to $20; if they travel $10 or more road miles one way, increases range from $6 to $25.

"FOR CARS OWNED or principally operated by unmarried men under age 25, rate ncreases range from $15 to $56.

"Unmarried young men who own or principally operate cars typically lack parental supervision and frequently their cars are driven by other youths. Liability loss costs for these cars as a class average almost three and a half times higher than for family cars without young male operators, hence the higher rates.

"FOR FAMILY CARS where a young male under 25 occasionally drives or where the car is owned by a married man under 25, the rate increases range from $8 to $34. Perhaps because of parental or wifely restraint, these young men have a better record than unrestrained young men. As an insurance class their loss costs are only twice the average for the family car with no male operators under 25.

"For private passenger cars used for business the increases range from $1 to $26."

Grand Jury Eyes Housing Authority

Grand Jury May Open Probe In Housing Authority Case

It is very possible the Contra Costa Grand Jury will open investigations into the operations of the Contra Costa Housing Authority at its February 10 meeting, according to William Hale Jr., foreman.

The 1956-57 Contra Costa Grand Jury handed over its studies on the Housing Authority to the present grand jury when it was dismissed last July.

HALE NOTED the present grand jury had not taken any action to investigate the charges of "irregularities in the operation of the Housing Authority" since it was in the hands of he federal government.

Ronald Howard, resigned executive director of the Contra Costa Housing Authority will be tried in Federal District Court February 3 on charges of converting government property to personal use.

OTHER CHARGES have been made against commissioners and employees of the Housing authority by ousted personnel and present members of the authority.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors is expected to act in the matter also by asking the commissioners to appear before its supervisors, according to a high county official who did not wish his named used at this time.

Answers to the charges of irregularities first printed in The Sun were made by Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance superintendent of the Authority last April.

The past grand jury directed the commissioners of the authority to answer the charges alleging a number of irregularites in the operation of the county agency of the Public Housing administration.

The answers to the grand jury were prepared by Howard and A. F. Bray, attorney for the authority at the direction of the commissioners.

The grand jury, after receiving the answers, which past Foreman Phil Bancroft Jr. termed incomlete, attempted to subpoena a federal investigator on the matter.

J. J. SULLIVAN, of the complience division of the Federal Home and Housing Administration of which PHA is a subdivision, refused to testify upon orders from the justice department of the United States.

The Howard case is being prosecuted by the Justice Department, Bernard Petri, deputy United States Attorney for the Department of Justice under the Juricial branch of the federal government.

The FHHA, PHA and Contra Costa Housing Authority are under the executive branch of the federal government.

CHARGES OF ousted Contra Costa Housing Authority Maintenance Superintendent Anthon were denied May 16 at a special meeting of housing authority commissioners.

In a reply to the Contra Costa Grand Jury, the commissioners approved a letter explaining allegations made by Anthon.

The reply stated that "the authority would welcome inspection of its operations by the grand jury or any other public agency."

"As in many other cases of government bodies the criticism is easily made but less easily substantiated.

"Mr. Anthon is in the position of any employee whose position has been done away with and his atitude is not surprising."

ANTHON CLAIMS that he was discharged for "telling all he knew" to a federal investigator. The authority has stated that Anthon was discharged in a budget cut.

Charges were made April 10 by Anthon that there were "irregularities" in the operations of the housing authority.

ANTHON'S CHARGES were made in an open letter to the commissioners, the grand jury and the press. Anthon was ousted by the Commission March 13.

Charges were made by Anthon against Howard, Gerould Gill, chairman, and George Weise, a commissioner.

W. H. Carpenter, commissioner, stated that Anthon had been a trouble maker in the authority and had been suspended earlier for "misconduct for one week without pay."

IN ANSWER TO charges that Weise had sold a car to a Walnut Creek auto firm and the same day the car was sold, in turn, to the Housing Authority, Weise said.

"It's not anybody's business what I do with my car. What happened was that I traded my car in on a new model. I had purchased the old car at wholesale prices and the most I could get for it was $1150.

"I knew that the authority was looking for a car of that model and size and the car was in excellent condition. In fact, in the two years that the authority has had the car, only minor repair work has been performed.

"I informed the authority that my car was available and three bids were requested from Jurs in Walnut Creek, Tunnel Motors and another firm. Tunnel Motors bid was $200 lower than any other. The Jurs bid was by telephone and the other bid was believed to have been in writing by comptroller Al Hills, said Weise.

"I THINK the authority got a good deal out of the transaction," Weise said.

Asked who the legal owner was at the time of the sale, Weise stated: "Tunnel Motors was both the legal and registered owner."

Howard commented that there were records on file to back Weise's story.

Another charge of Anthon states that Gill used his position for personal gain.

Anthon alleges that Gill's Marsh Greek Lodge was the location of a Housing Authority employee's party in which Gill was paid over $500 for his services and goods used.

GILL STATED the party cost him $100 out of his own pocket and that the employees got more than their money's worth out of the party.

Housing authority funds were used, states Anthon.

Hacienda Group Raises Its Fee

The Board of Directors of Hacienda Homes, Inc., at its regular meeting recently, raised the rate for annual fee from $2 to $3, Secretary Art Smith reports.

Road assessments of 15 cents per front foot remain unchanged, according to Smith.

Rumors Running Rampant In Central Area on Crime

Wild and unfounded rumors are running rampant in the central county area since reports of a major crime wave were made in an emergency session of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

In a survey The Sun attempted to find out how these rumors were started and if there was any justification for them.

On rumor notes that a 17 year old girl was raped in Happy Valley following a date. The matter reportedly is attributed to a young girl who saw someone wearing a hood (such as worn on "car coats") dash through the brush as she came home from a date.

ANOTHER rumor notes that a young girl was accosted in her own home by a workman. The true story is that a carpenter was given permission to use the bathroom of the house during the time he was working on a carport. The mother of the girl wrote the incident off as the girl "had been watching too much television."

Sheriff's deputies have answered prowler reports throughout the central county area and have found the responsibles to be: a deer walking on a wooden porch (a woman called saying a brute was trying to break down her front door); a cat on the roof; a quince tree rubbing against a window; the wind.

Other rumors state that footprints outside a bedroom window have been traced to an area tradesman. This rumor was discounted by the sheriff's office. Apparently it was started by children riding to and from school on a bus.

OTHER PERSONS in the central county area have heard so many rumors, that they are locking doors and keeping loaded guns around the house.

"Keeping the door locked is not a bad idea, commented a sheriff's deputy, but having a loaded gun around is just plain crazy. The first thing you know we'll have a dead child on our hands or a next door neighbor with a bullet in 'em."

Inspector Norman Wilson of the Central Station answered complaints of Lafayette residents Monday in an interview with The Sun charging sheriff's deputies did not arrive at the scene of the Morris fire in Lafayette January 9 until 45 minutes after a prowler report was made.

THE TRUTH of the matter is that four men were detailed to the prowler report and were on the scene within 20 minutes.

"These men are instructed not to go charging to the scene of the alleged crime with red lights and sirens wailing. It is just a tip to the criminal that the police are on the way. They were searching the hills for the reported prowler that set fire while firemen fought the blaze.

"There wasn't a reason in the world why they should have been watching the firemen putting out the blaze or talking to people. It was their duty to try and apprehend the responsible person or persons and this is just what they did."

Undersheriff Says 16 Persons Go To Central Station

A total of 16 personnel have been assigned to the Central Contra Costa County Substation of the Sheriff's office, according to John Jagard, undersheriff.

There are now 12 patrolmen, one detective, one detective trainee, one inspector and one clerk typist.

On the average, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, there are five men on duty to police the Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Alamo, Pleasant Hill, Danville, San Ramon, Berkeley Hills, Orinda and other unincorporated areas of the central county, Jagard said.

One man is working the vice detail for all of Contra Costa County, Jagard pointed out. He noted, however, that there is no indication that there is any organized vice in the county at this time.

Inspector in charge of the Central county substation is Norman Wilson and Harold "Bud" Hobert and Louis Skuce are detectives in the substation.

Their duties are divided by the inspector depending on the work load and the crime rate during any particular given period, said Jagard.

Coldest Day Hits Orinda Wed.

The coldest day of the weather season hit Orinda Wednesday with a more than chilly low reading of 27 degrees.

The rainfall total for the weather year, which began last July 1, was up to a healthy 14.59 inches with an additional .04 inches which fell during the week.

Here is the weather chart:

Birthday Party? Meeting? How Can You Tell?

Jack Cummings, recently retired chairman of the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors, was 70 recently.

And as a result, he celebrated his 70th birthday in the natural way, with a few parties here and there.

In fact, some parties were given for him.

One of the most interesting ones was held at Paul's Place in Martinez Tuesday at noon. It was held in a nice, quiet room, right next to where the Martinez Lions were meeting. And it was attended by the present board of supervisors—in toto including Mary Smith, secretary to the board, and a few other high county officials.

It was obvious that it was a birthday party for Jack Cummings.

But, the question has occurred, what is the distinction between a birthday party and a meeting of the board of supervisors?

There was no published agenda, and no advance notice, so it COULDN'T have been a meeting.

But on the other hand, all the supervisors were there—talking with other county officials.

Birthday party? Meeting? Where's the difference?

New Gas War Hits Central County Area

Chamber Directors Favor Proposal B on Road-Names

Favored by Orinda Chamber of Commerce directors are the road-names in "Proposal B" on the ballot which was recently circulated by mail among them.

Approved by all those present at last Tuesday's chamber luncheon meeting at Casa Orinda was the sentiment of the directors, as expressed in the poll, for the following idea:

1. Camino Pablo to be the name of the road from Highway 40 to junction of Moraga Highway at the Standard Oil station near the Willows.

2. MORAGA HIGHWAY to be changed to Moraga Way and extend from Bryant Way to Moraga.

3. Orinda Highway to be changed to Orinda Way. (This to be from the bridge at the Village to beyond Santa Maria Way.)

Because of lack of a quorum last Tuesday, it was decided that the matter be placed before the membership at the February 4 chamber meeting, for further approval.

IN THE MEANTIME, the expression of the chamber directors in the mail-vote is being forwarded to the County Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

The supervisors have scheduled a hearing on the subject for February 11.

Chamber Secretary Clarence Betz urged a large turnout for the February 4 session, which will be a noon luncheon gathering at Casa Orinda.

IN OTHER DISCUSSION last Tuesday, Betz proposed that the chamber take care of the landscaping of the section between Bryant Way and the curbing of the fence. He said that if the community did the landscaping, the county would perform the maintenance.

Mentioning the recent burglary at Ned deLaveaga's, Ernest Poll suggested that the chamber contact the sheriff's office and Supervisor Mel Nielsen in an effort to obtain more deputies in this area. It was agreed that Poll and Bud Leiber would get in touch with the sheriff's office on this matter.

In the absence of President Maynard Buehler, Leiber acted as chairman of Tuesday's gathering.

Nielsen Answers Sheriff's Charges on 'Crime Wave'

Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen of Lafayette retorted to statements made by Contra Costa County Sheriff Harry Brown that no major crime wave existed in the central county area.

Nielsen noted that on the basis criminal statistics no major crime wave existed by definition, but the people of the central county area are in such a state of hysteria over prowlers and alleged rapes that the immediate action of the board of supervisors was a most necessary action.

NIELSEN CALLED a special meeting of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors December 10 to give additional men to the Sheriff to patrol the central county area.

"I acted in the best interests of the people of Contra Costa County when I called an emergency meeting of the board of supervisors to obtain additional men for the sheriff's office on the basis of telephone calls I personally have received from residents in my district complaining about vandalism, petty theft, prowlers and a mulititude of other subjects," said Nielsen.

"I received my information, not only over the telephone and in sidewalk conversations, but also from the inspector of the central county sub station, Norman Wilson.

"SOMETHING HAD to be done to stop the rampant crime wave in the central county area and I feel that it, in part, has been quelled," Nielsen continued.

"The action of the board, and in particular my action, was the first constructive step toward a working relationship with the sheriff's department.

"What reasons the sheriff has in completely discounting the reports of residents and slamming at the board of supervisors and myself I have no idea, but I do feel that his action is uncalled for.

"I believe very sincerely, that we can, and will, work out a good working relationship with the sheriff's office, if the sheriff would only try to meet the supervisors half way," Nielsen continued.

"IT IS THE DUTY of the supervisors and the sheriff to act in the best interest of the residents of Contra Costa County. The Board has done its job in getting the additional men to patrol the central county area. Now it is the duty of the sheriff that these additional men are put to the most effective use to prevent further outbreaks of crime in the county, Nielsen commented.

"I am looking forward to an understanding with the sheriff and all other department heads that I am dedicated to the service of the people of Contra Costa County and will act immediately in any situation which is adverse to my dedcaton, Nielsen concluded.

Nielsen's comments were aimed primarily at statements made to The Sun by Brown in the January 17 edition.

Brown said:

"THERE HAS NEVER been what you can call a major crime wave since I've been in office and termed Nielsen statement a "tremendous exaggeration or the true facts in the matter."

Nielsen informed the board of supervisors on facts from Wilson that there had been 22 major crimes in the Lafayette area alone during a 24 hour period.

On the basis of Nielsen's statements the supervisors voted to approve additional manpower to the sheriff's office.

The additional men allocated by the board went on duty the following Monday, according to John Jagard, undersheriff.

"I think the whole matter is a grave misunderstanding of terminology and we will find that the additional manpower allocated to the sheriff is just the thing that was needed for quite some time in the central county area," Jagard said.

Orinda Ready for Annual Fathers' March on Polio

As Orinda's March of Dimes continued, preparations were intensified this week for the annual Fathers' March on Polio which next Friday night will bring to a close the month-long campaign.

Stan Hunn and Al Baer, co-chairmen of the local March of Dimes, are asking for volunteers for the Fathers' March so that it can be a fitting climax to the entire drive.

They ask that any men who can help in the door-todoor anti-polio solicitation next Friday night, get in touch with one of them promptly. Hunn's home is at 3 El Verona; Al Baer's Village Shoe Shop is at 21 Orinda Highway.

"HAVE YOUR porchlights on by 7 o'clock next Friday night and keep them on for a couple of hours," the co-chairmen urge.

"With your porchlight turned on, our volunteer dads who will be "mothers" for the evening will know you want to help with funds.

"By keeping your lights on for a couple of hours you will help assure that the volunteers will get around to seeing it; ours is a big territory, and it may take a while for the workers to get around to your place."

THE MIRAMONTE Teenage Club, under Chairman Ann Frederickson, is participating in the Teens Againt Polio effort.

Members have put up the local posters to remind people of the March of Dimes, and they have distributed the containers for small change.

They are also taking part in the Blue Crutch sale, an important phase of the March of Dimes.

Last Friday the Girls League at Miramonte High School held a successful "slave sale," Part of the proceeds go to the March of Dimes.

"Good work, kids—and a big thank you from those who still bear the marks of polio," Hunn and Baer say.

Ex-Big Leaguer Augie Galan Talks to Rotary

Augie Galan, former big league baseball star, told the Orinda Rotary Club Wednesday noon that the coming of the Giants to San Francisco and of the Dodgers to Los Angeles is "a wonderful thing" for sports fans on the West Coast.

The guest speaker was introduced by Leighton MacGregor, program chairman. President Robeson Smith conducted the meeting at the Orinda Willows.

Next Wednesday at the club's 12:15 p.m. luncheon meeting at the Willows, Dr. Ralph C. Hall of Orinda, Acalanes High School District trustee, will discuss the proposed raise in the high school district tax rate ceiling. To be decided by the voters February 25, the proposal is for raising of the ceiling from $1.75 to $2.25 per $100 assessed valuation.

Last week Joe Williams, assistant comptroller of the Bank of America, talked on "People, Places and Automation" at the Orinda Rotary meeting. On January 8, at the club's first meeting of the year, Verne Garcia, a certified public accountant from Oakland, discussed "Philosophies of Karl Marx, Adam Smith and Hegel."

Record Low Prices Reported at 23.5 Cents Per Gallon

Contra Costa's on again off again gas war broke out again this week with prices plummeting from 36.9 cents per gallon to an all time record low of 23.5 cents.

Service station operators in the central county area expressed a certain amount of dismay at the new gas war and hurled accustations of price cutting at San Francisco and Oakland distributors.

"IF THOSE guys (service station ooerators) would quit getting so hungry we'd all make an honest living, said a Pleasant Hill service station operator.

Meanwhile gas prices in Oakland were down to 22 cents per gallon for regular gasoline and Ethyl type gas is going for as low as 26 in "cut rate" stations.

PRICES IN Pleasant Hill range from 25.9 to 30 cents per gallon for regular and 27.9 to 33 for premium quality gas. In Walnut Creek and Lafayette prices are about the same but the low regular price record in these communities is 23.5 cents per gallon.

In Orinda, stations have been standoffish about getting into the conflict, but, said one operator, if it goes any longer we're not going to let our regular customers go to Oakland, Berkeley or Lafayette to get gas.

Just what started this latest outbreak of the gas war is just as great as mystery to local operators now as it was some seven times over the past year when gas wars broke out.

Some blamed it on surplus stocks of the major oil companies, others swore it was the fault of the cut rate station and still others said it's the only way left to attract people to come in for lub jobs and etc, that really coin the money for a station.

"A LOT OF US would rather take a small loss or little profit on gas in preferance of getting additional wash, lubrication, oil changes and other minor repair jobs which really pay for themselves," said a Lafayette operator.

Many stations have already dropped trading stamps in order to give lower prices in gasoline as have many food stores in the area, according to a downtown Walnut Creek major oil company dealer.

Will the gas war end soon?

Well, one Pleasant Hill resident isn't taking any chances. He went to a cut rate station Wednesday afternoon with two 55 gallon drums and said "fill'em up."

Vic Kingston New Head of Civic Affairs

Vic Kingston of 30 Daryl Drive was elected 1958 chairman of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

He succeeds Dr. Ralph C. Hall as chairman. Dr. Hall is now a director of the association and is vice president of the organization. He remains the representative of the Acalanes High School District board to Civic Affairs, and as association vice president he is liaison man from the association board to Civic Affairs.

Also elected at the Civic Affairs Committee's first meeting of the year, held in the Orinda School auditorium, was Jim Dana as vice chairman.

Kingston is president of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association. Dana is president of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

ATTORNEY Jackson Davis talked briefly on the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Valory of Lafayette and others to block the $400 a month retirement pension of ousted County Recorder Ralph Cunningham. Davis has offered his services free of charge to the group.

He suggested that the Orinda Association might ask the State Legislature to change the law governing retirement pensions. Dr. Hall, who was still Civic Affairs chairman at that part of the meeting, referred the suggestion to the committee on the Cunningham matter, for a report to be brought back at the February 17 meeting. If favorable, such a report might result in Civic Affairs recommendation to the association board.

The committee consists of Robeson Smith, chairman; Robert Karplus and Mrs. Ernest Fernsten.

STANLEY ALLEN, chairman of the teenage recreation committee, reported that his group had not made much progress in efforts toward establishment of a youth center, due partly to changes in recent months in association property holdings.

Arthur Flint was introduced to Civic Affairs as the new president of the Orinda Association.

Despite Fog, Plans Go on For Moraga Valley Pool . . .

In spite of winter holidays and heavy tule fogs, neither commonly associated with the swimming season, the members of the engineering committee of the Moraga Valley Pool has been spending every spare minute of their time preparing to provide a well-planned community pool for their neighbors.

Under the direction of Wally Edwards, chairman of the engineering committee, plans and specifications for a tournament-sied swimming pool, an attractive pool house and a 100-car parking area have been completed and will be put to bid within a month.

Robert Graves, well-known San Francisco landscape architect, was retained to draw plans for utilidation of the 7-acre site on Ivy Drive in the Miramonte High School area.

PRESENT PLANS include an 1850-square-foot pool house with men's and women's locker rooms, storage, office, and filter and heating room, and a separate wading pool for toddlers.

"We've an ideal location," Edwards explained, "protected from the wind by surrounding hills, open to the full sun and convenient to a heavily populated area. We have been very fortunate to have had the services of Bill Zimmerman and Fred Nielsen, both registered civil engineers, and will have the best designed and planned community pool in the area."

An outstanding feature of the pool will be its unusual design. In addition to the 35 by 75-foot swimming portion will be a 30 by 30-foot diving area and a 30 by 30-foot roped-off shallow portion for non-swimming children, forming an overall "Z" shape.

THE MEMBERSHIP committee headed by John Hollisey, has been busy contacting residents and securing members.

Hallisey pointed out that the California Division of Corporations will not release the escrowed funds for the purchase of the site and construction unless all the memberships have been subscribed by March 1. Seventy-five of these are still available and can be secured on a $100 deposit, with the balance of $200 payable by March 1.

The following members of the committee can be called for further information: John Hallisey, 6 Arroyo Drive; Jim Roberts, 216 Ivy Drive, and Ed Walsh, 43 Donna Maria Way, all of Orinda.

A meeting of members and interested residents of the area has been scheduled for next Wednesday in the all-purpose room of Miramonte High School, at which time a progress report will be presented and plans for the immediate future will be outlined.

AMERICAN INDIAN FASHIONS will be displayed for Contra Costans and others who will attend the American Indian benefit dinner and fashion showing at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the First Christian Church hall at 29th Street and Fairmont Avenue, Oakland. As a prelude to the show, Mrs. Ethel Pinetree Rogoff of Laguna Pueblo in New Mexico, who will be one of the models, displays the graceful silken-caped garb of her people to Orinda youngsters (left to right) Valerie Renwick, Sandra Kersh and Pamela Anderson. The event will benefit the people of the Intertribal Friendships House. Mrs. Rogoff was at the Kenneth Renwick home last Saturday, at Valerie's 12th birthday party.

Residents Seek TV Continuance; Meet Gentry

As the result of two meetings of residents of the area this week steps are being taken by families in the El Toyonal section to prevent a shutdown of television service to their homes.

Families among the 80 subscribers to the service provided by Television Transmission, Inc., of Martinez met Sundays night at main Orinda fire station in the village and Wednesday night in the Orinda School auditorium. William A. Gentry, new owner of Television Transmission, was present at the second gathering.

Gentry told the Wednesday night gathering that if there were sufficient desire shown among subscribers to have the system continued, he would cooperate as best he could to continue the coaxial cable system.

HOWEVER, he maintained that a minimum of 160 member-families would be essential as a basis for successful operation. He agreed to negotiate with a subscribers' committee regarding his previously announced requirement that annual fees be paid yearly in advance.

He also said that if the present subscribers evinced enough interest in trying to solicit additional subscribers, he would continue the service beyond the previously announced February 10 deadline, as follows:

In the period of the next month, he would make certain improvements in the system so that TV pictures would be clearer. Also, he would continue service for two months after that—in other words, to approximately the latter part of April—in order to give subscribers the opportunity to recruit new subccribers.

AFTER GENTRY left the meeting, the assemblage voted to cooperate with Gentry in an effort to continue the system, and named a committee consisting of John Ogden, W. F. Williams, Ed Roberts, Phil Champion and Forrest Lusher.

The committee has tentatively scheduled a meeting for itself at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Ogden's home at 19 Piedmont Avenue, to map further plans. An early meeting with Gentry will be sought, committee members' indicated.

Last Sunday's gathering was called by Champion and Lusher. Wednesday night's meeting was called by Williams.

Following the Wednesday night session, Williams commented: "Through these two meetings and the interest shown, I feel that real progress is being made. I am confident that some solution can be worked out to the satisfaction of everyone concerned."

Jim Doyle Appointed as New Assistant Postmaster

Announcement is made by Laura G. Mallary, postmaster that Edmund J. Doyle, senior clerk, has been appointed assistant postmaster at the Orinda Post Office, a position left vacant when Edward J. Kuenzli retired after 30 years in the postal service.

Jim Doyle, as he is known to his many friends, has been a clerk in the local post office since 1946, when the Orinda Post Office was first established as a second class office and was located in the Vashell Building on Moraga Highway. Prior to that time he served as a carrier for five years at the Berkeley Post Office before entering the armed services in 1944.

Mrs. Mallary states that Doyle's main duties are those of a supervisor of personnel, both clerks and carriers, and he also assumes the duties of a superintendent of vehicles.

Doyle, 44, lives at 1819 Poplar Drive, Walnut Creek with his wife, Alice, and children Patricia, Robert and Dennis. He has been assistant postmaster in Orinda since November 16.

Patrons Lauded By Postmaster For Early Mail

Mrs. Laura Mallary, postmaster at the Orinda Post Office, stated yesterday she wishes to commend local residents for cooperating so effectively in the program for early mailing at Christmas time.

As a result there was no last-minute rush for the window clerks and the employees in charge of dispatching mail, she said.

The peak day for mailing Christmas cards was well ahead of last year. The canceling machine recorded a total of over 360,000 pieces of letter mail dispatched through the local post office in a 16-day period just prior to Christmas Day. More than three-fourths or 285,000 of this total had been mailed on or before December 19.

Mrs. Mallary added:

"Parcel post packages were mailed very much earlier this season and should have arrived at their desination in ample time for Christmas delivery.

"Stamp sales for the month of December at the Orinda office exceeded $20,000, compared to $16,600 for the same period in 1956. Approximately three-fourths of this amount was recorded as stamp sales for the first 15 days of the month, ample evidence that patrons were complying with the request of postal authorities to mail early."

Mrs. Mallary pointed out that patrons will find that they will get better mail service if they give the same cooperation throughout the year by mailing early in the day whenever possible.

Many citizens make a practice of waiting until after 4 or 5 p.m. to deposit their letters, causing a deluge of mail in the Oakland and San Francisco terminals a few hours later, she said.

Civil Defense Meet Will Be Next Tuesday

Under sponsorship of the Orinda Mothers Club a civil defense program will be given Tuesday in the all-purpose room of Glorietta School. Mrs. Richard I. Copenhagen has arranged the program.

Colonel Ralph E. Holmes, USAF (Ret.), acting director of the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense and Disaster, will speak on "Current Civil Defense Planning for Schools and Parents" at 12:45 p.m. All interested mothers in Orinda are invited.

Preceding Colonel Holmes' talk Mrs. Copenhagen will be hostess at dessert for Glorietta School mothers, in the all-purpose room.

Dusseldorf to Lafayette: Fritz Borst Says 'Thanks'

Last year the American Field Service, with the financial backing of the community, brought to Lafayette as an exchange student Fritz Borst of Dusseldorf.

Fritz was welcomed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lincoln of 1115 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette. Here he lived as a member of the Lincoln family and took his senior year of work at Acalanes High School.

Fritz took an active part in school life. He served on the student counil, joined the track team and participated in the senior play.

FRITZ IS NOW continuing his education in Dusseldorf. He is spending much of his time working on the student exchange program of the American Field Service.

Mrs. Earl Creager of 835 Moraga Road, Lafayette, past chairman of Lafayette AFS Committee and present area representative, recently received a letter from Fritz, expressing his appreciation and recounting some of his activities for the student exchange program.

The letter read in part:

"Dear Mrs. Creager:

"I am finally back again and adjusted to my old circumstances. It wasn't as hard as I thought it would be. I am going to my old school again and we are telling about our stay in the States and very often. There was another boy in Illinois last year with AFS and we are regarded as experts on America in our school now.

"BUT THE REASON I am writing to you is that I want to thank you and the whole committee for your help and friendliness I enjoyed during the year. I wish we had you over here to help AFS in Germany, because over here it is mostly done by returnees and there are only a few grown-up people to help us.

"By the way, I was elected AFS chairman for Dusseldorf and vicinity. We select the kids who are going to the States and arrange the summer program for the American kids.

"I went to Bremen to see all American kids, who had stayed in Germany this last summer, off. We really had a nice time in Bremen, from where they left. I met some kids I had known in the States, and among them, Ernie Fox. He seemed to have enjoyed his stay in Germany tremendously.

"I ALSO WANT to thank you, Mrs. Creager, for the names of the club presidents. Smed Ambler sent them to me the other day and wrote that you had given them to him. I am trying to arrange for a speech in the local Rotary Club. Besides that, we are going to arrange for a show of slides at school and some other places. I brought home about 600 slides and I guess it will be a pretty good show.

"How is everything coming along with the new kids? I hope you don't have any trouble with them.

"I have to close now. We are going to school in the afternoon today, since we have to share our school with another one.

"Thank you very much for everything, and I hope to hear from you soon.

"With kindest regards,
"Fritz."

Scout Salute

Troop 170

By NANCY HENRY
Member of Troop 170

In the year 1952, a troop of Brownies was organized under the Number 180. At the same time another troop of Brownies, 170, was organized.

In 1956 Troops 170 and 180 merged and both took the number 170. At that time the troops together consisted of 20 girls.

During the years this troop has endeavored to participate in:

(1) Girl Scouts in Action; (three years).
a. Singing as a group;
b. Singing as individuals;
c. Dramatics (skits).
(2) Community Activities:
a. Weimar Sanitarium;
b. Packages for Korea;
c. Civic heart association (two years).

Out of the 14 girls, one scout, Hester Harris, went farther and earned her Curved Bar, Girl Scouting's highest award. Like her sister, Becky, Hester earned it under the titles of dramatics and dancing.

This is unique in that Troop 170 has not had one leader, but has been a mother-daughter participation in that each mother at some time has taken a patrol.

Tomorrow at noon, the Troop's Court of Awards will be at the home of Abe Doty, 349 Glorietta Boulevard, Orinda.

Troop 264

Members of Troop 265 of Orinda Girl Scouts enjoyed a trip to San Francisco on January 11 to see "Seven Wonders of the World."

The girls participating in the event were Terry Epperson, Cheryl Fager, Cheryl Libbey, Paulita Parrish, Lynn Schralla, Lottie Thurston and Robbin Vallado.

The troop appreciates transportation by Harold Libbey and Arnold Schralla. Mrs. George Thurston and Mrs. Harold Libbey accompanied the group.

Work on the Rambler Badge is being resumed now that the Christmas Service Project is over.

Susie, David Make Big Splash

Susie Barkley, a Pine Grove School student, and David Texdahl, a Sleepy Hollow School pupil, are members of swim teams of the Berkeley Young Men's Christian Association and as such have achieved national recognition.

Ernest Marinoni, director of health and physical education for the Berkeley YMCA, reports that Susie was a member of the medley relay team that set a national record for 200 yards at 2:17.9.

David, according to Marinoni, set a national record for boys 10 years of age and under in the 50-yard freestyle, long course, at 30 seconds.

The first record of a tea table made in America was 1705.

Go to Church Sunday

Episcopal

On Theological Education Sunday, Brian Nurding will represent the Church Divinity School of the Pacific at the 9:15 and 11 a.m. services at St. Stephen's Episcopal church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

Graduate of Stanford university in the department of English, Murding is a seminarian at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley fulfilling a lifelong ambition to be an ordained minister.

He will preach on Sunday at St. Stephen's in a plea for funds for the seminary, as part of the program to provide visiting seminarians on this special day throughout the eighth province comprising the western states.

A native of Tacoma, Washington, Brian Nurding met his San Diego born wife at Stanford, where she was training to teach elementary school. They will return to the Diocese of Olympia in Washington following his graduation from the seminary in two years. Pending that time, Nurding expects to head a new mission in Contra Costa county, beginning this fall.

Preceeds from the congregational collection at the two later services at St. Stephen's will go to help maintain the Church Divinity School.

Confirmation classes will start in a new series of 12 weekly sessions beginning Wednesday, January 29, at 8 p.m. for adults, and Thursday, January 30, at 4 p.m. for youngsters. Both classes will be held in the newly dedicated Hill Memorial Hall.

Harding president, C. Silver vice president; H. Engman corresponding secretary, H. Hirtzer recording secretary, D. Hansen treasurer. There also will be a Baptism of children at the 11 a.m. service.

Sunday School begins at 9:30 a.m. All those from nursery age through adult are encouraged to attend. The adult class led by Mr. Joe Berndt meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Stahle on Orchard Rd. Luther League meets at 7:30 at the church.

Monday evening at 8 p.m. Sunday School Teacher Training class will meet. The first period will be a discussion on Basic Christian Teaching, the second period will be The Ways of Teaching.

Tuesday evening the Womens Guild will meet at 8 p.m. Pastor Hidy will speak on the new Luthern Hymnal.

Friday evening the mens group will meet at 7 p.m. Jack Snyder and Bill Koch are in charge of preparing dinner.

This evening the Mr. and Mrs. group are having a pot luck at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Silver.

Baptist

"Theology of Things", will be the 11:00 a.m. topic at the First Baptist Church of Orinda, Sunday in the Willows Banquet room. 9:30 a.m. Pastor Bruce H. Parker will announce the winner of the attendance contest and attentance pins will be presented. A gospel magic trick will precede adjournment to classes. There are classes for all ages from beginner through adult.

The evening service will feature "chorus Time" with special musical numbers and a devotional "Drifters Peril". This one hour service begins at 7:30 p.m.

Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. under the direction of Roger Moore. This service is geared to teenagers and all are welcome.

Thursday evening Bible study and Prayer meeting begin at 8:00 p.m. This is primarily a time of discussion of the Scriptures as they pertain to everyday living.

The Sunday school and worship service are held in the Willows Banquet room, located at the Orinda Crossroads. All of the other services convene at 2 Crest View Drive, Orinda.

Clipper Club Will Install Officers

The Clipper Club of the Orinda Community Church will have a potluck supper next Friday at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Installation of the newly elected officers will be held that night, with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Flenner taking over as skippers. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Howe will bow out as skippers of the past year

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Krotz will talk and will show pictures that night on their trip to Europe.

Doctors Chosen To Direct Plans For New Hospital

Directors who will help plan development of the proposed Walnut Creek Community Hospital at an estimated cost of $500,000 were elected Monday.

They are Frederick W. Ackerman, Concord surgeon; Drs. Harold S. Robinson, Frederick M. Hanson, Charles J. Hart, Lawrence Winter, all of Walnut Creek, and Dr. Kendall W. Caldwell, Lafayette.

The six doctors will meet soon to organize and choose five laymen to complete an 11-member board.

Physicians and doctors of this area recently adopted articles of incorporation for the 50-bed hospital. The tentative site chosen is the 8½-acre Geary ranch at Pleasant Hill and Geary Roads.

About 60 doctors have subscribed a total of $170,000 in pledges for the hospital. It was reported that the amount will pay for planning and land purchase.

If the board, when completed, approves the site, its annexation to the city is planned.

Local Clothiers At S.F. Event

Among those at the recent Spring and Summer Market Week of the West Coast Salesmen's Association at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco were the following clothiers from Orinda:

John and Gertrude Ogden, owners, Ogden's; Lee Edwards and Judy Sinclair, owners, and Mary Lance, buyer, Judy Lee.

Tea was first introduced to America about 1650.

Two Named for US Air Force Academy Exam

New YMCA Chartering Is Wedesday

The East Contra Costa YMCA, "the newest Young Men's Christian Association in the United States," will receive its national charter at a banquet on the East Campus of the Contra Costa Junior College on Golf Links Road, Wednesday, at 7 p.m.

The charter will be presented by Shelden Swenson of the National YMCA.

SPEAKER will be the Reverend Bob Richards, Olympic pole-vault champion, according to Lee Russell, chairman of the Founders' Night Banquet.

Board members, submitted by the nominating board, will be elected and inducted. Nominated for offices are president, Elroy Condeff of Walnut Creek; vice-president, Ted Barcelon of Lafayette; vice-president, Ted Taylor of Orinda; secretary, Walker McKevitt of Walnut Creek, and Treasurer Reed Buffington of Martinez.

East Contra Costa's Young Men's Christian Association, with all YMCA's throughout the world, have chosen the week January 19-26 to celebrate YMCA Week, a week designated to the recognition of the YMCA work done all over the world.

YMCA Sunday, January 19, was observed in churches of all denominations.

LOCAL "Y" Indian Guides, a father and son organization held their annual induction ceremonies during the week. The dates of the banquets were as follows: Walnut Creek Nation, Tuesday; Danville Nation, yesterday; Concord Nation, today.

Fathers, "Big Braves," and sons, "Little Braves," with their families, attended the Banquets, each member of the tribe signing pledges.

Big Braves pledged "to sacrifice the trait of selfishness by spending more time with my son during the coming year." Little Braves are to "sacrifice the trait of impatience and learn to wait during the coming year.

Both Big and Little Braves symbolized their pledges by dropping them in a sacrificial urn.

Diablo Valley Girl Scout Council Installs Officers

The Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council held its annual meeting for election and installation of officers of the Board of Directors at Diablo Country Club Wednesday. Luncheon was served after the meeting, at which time the council presented honorary awards.

Mrs. Gorton Linsley opened the 13th annual meeting and called on Melinda Marler, Troop 124; Barbara Seidler, Troop 208, and Beverly Vick, Troop 108, to pronounce the invocation. A colorful and impressive flag ceremony was presented, with Virginia Horton of Troop 109 as color sergeant.

Mrs. Phillip McCaffrey, president of the Oakland Area Girl Scout Council, was the guest speaker, reporting on the National Girl Scout Convention she attended in Philadelphia in November. She explained the theme for the national Girl Scout movement for the coming year, "You can count on her—Can she count on you?"

MRS. ROBERT FREEMAN, president of the Diablo Valley Council, gave the annual report of the past year's operation and accomplishment.

The newly elected officers of the Diablo Valley Council were installed by Mrs. Kenneth Hallstone. Accepting offices on the board were Mrs. Robert Freeman, president; Mrs. W. W. Wiggins, first vice-president; Mrs. Ernest Fernsten, second vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Smith, third vice-president; Mrs. R. J. Saunders, recording secretary; Mrs. Stanley Travis, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Stanford White, treasurer.

At the luncheon Mrs. Richard Leland presented the council's honorary awards. A Thanks-Badge, the council's highest award, was presented to Mesdames J. Orr Kyle, Mrs. R. E. Nichols, White, Fernsten and Victor Perry.

STATUETTES were presented to volunteer trainers Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. Elwood Horton and Mrs. M. W. Loveland, as well as Products Chairman Mrs. Bernard Hendricks and Program Chairman Mrs. W. W. Wiggins.

Certificates of Appreciation were presented to Mesdames Charles David, James Quick, Richard Leland, Kenneth Hallstone, Dana Allison, J. D. Hallum, D. W. Saulsberry, Robert Morris, Mark Mills, Howard Profrock and R. P. Samuels and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Underhill and Mrs. Charles Weidner.

Mrs. J. D. Hallum was presented with a 25-year pin, and Mesdames Robert J. Evans, Emerson Hail, Robert Freeman, J. T. Dibble, F. A. Pelligrin, James Quick and J. V. Shahbazian received 10-year pins.

Pearce Affirms Jurisdiction Over Pyramids

The jurisdiction of the California Commissioin of Corporations definitely applies to all Pyramid Club activities, even though all arrangements are informally made in private homes, Assistant Commissoiner of Corporations Donald Pearce told The Sun this week.

The question had been raised by a number of persons who reportedly are still engaged in building their pyramids which theoretically offer a $4096 return on a mere $4 within 11 days.

PEARCE told The Sun that his organization's jurisdictions applies as long as there are two people agreeing to the practices necessary to build pyramids.

He added that "desist and refrain" orders were sent out to a number of persons who were in a certain pyramid operating in centra Contra Costa County, and the order applies to everyone involved in any pyramid.

"If we hear of more pyramids grand jury action is the next step," Pearce commented.

He added, "The law does not require that the person participating have any evil intent to be guilty of violating the corporation registration laws. It requires only that they be doing certain unlawful things."

RUMORS CONTINUE that pyramids are still being created in the county, but the unfavorable publicity resulting from an announcement by the district attorney's office that pyramids are lotteries, and by the "cease and refrain" order issued by Pearce have reportedly driven them "underground."

Pyramids had been going strong in the central county for more than a month before the official action, and reportedly a number of persons collected at least several hundred dollars.

Now, many persons are demanding their $4 back, and in many cases persons at the "pay-off' stage are returning the money.

Assistant State Attorney General Clarence Linn said that it is proper to enter the pyramid earnings on income tax returns, and there need be no fear of any reprisal, since such returns are confidential. The only risk is where the profits from pyramids are not declared.

For a missile to be accurate, it must re-enter the atmosphere fast enough not to be buffeted off course by winds, but slow enough so that it will not overheat.

Braumoeller Talks; Brown Puzzled Now

Disclosures made by former top narcotics agent Ludwig (Fred) Braumoeller of Orinda have Attorney General Edmund G. Brown confused.

In a press statement Brown said: "I just don't know what to do with the information."

WIDELY CIRCULATED rumors assert that Braumoeller, who pleaded guilty to giving heroin to a dope addict, named several of his former associates as men who "pumped" addicts with dope to get information.

Federal narcotics agents use money to get information from addicts to lead them to ringleaders in the underworld of dope peddlers and distributors.

Brown's chief investigator, Harold Robinson, said that Brown did not know whether he would give the statements any "credence."

Brown himself commented that Braumoeller's statements "as yet had not been corroborated."

Braumoeller will face Judge O. D. Hamlin in San Francisco on Thursday for sentencing on his guilty plea. He had been charged on four counts of breaking the federal narcotics laws and previously pleaded not guilty and insisted that the entire affair was a "frame up" on the part of federal agents.

THE BRAUMOELLER case has torn the Federal Narcotics Bureau and the California Authority into an open feud being carried on in the press.

Meanwhile, Brown denied reports that he has asked Walter Creighton, State Narcotics Bureau chief to resign.

Brown said, however, that he will ask the legislature to study the advisability of the consolidation of the State Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement with the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation.

March of Dimes Response Slow, Shary Reports

Bryan Shary, county chairman of the March of Dimes, reports a disappointing response to date in the mailed appeals for the current campaign. Only a small percentage of the 100,000 mailed solicitations have so far been returned, he states.

Immediate returns on this present drive are needed to carry the nursing costs of home-care patients, Shary said.

"Many of these paralyzed patients can be helped further by new developments in the techniques of rehabilitation," Shary said, "but their expensive treatment must continue for a long period of time. Those of us who have been spared this crushing disease can give them their chance by contributing to the March of Dimes."

Meetings Are Next Week On Acalanes Tax Proposal

Eighteen parents of Miramonte, Las Lomas and Acalanes have organized a Parents Committee to study the proposal to raise the district tax rate limit from $1.75 to $2.25.

Members of the committee include from Lafayette: Charles Cooper, Robert Miller, Mrs. George Eberhard, Mrs. H. S. Gardner, Mrs. Ogden Kiesel and Mrs. Charles Nimmo; from Walnut Creek, Howard Robie, Russell Weaver, J. F. Danner, rMs. F. J. Bertagnolli, Mrs. L. E. Chamberlin and Mrs. Russell Crater

COMMITTEE members from Orinda are Stanley Allen, A. W. Bowman, Frank Shirey and Mesdames J. E. Rinne, J. R. Quinn and R. A. Stark.

At their organizational meeting, Parent Committee members heard school officals outline the fiscal problems of the district.

District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons explained "The basic element in the district's request for a new tax tax limit is enrollment growth. Last year the Acalanes District grew 18 percent, highest growth rate for any district in the state."

"We cannot educate several hundred additional students each vear ahead under the present tax limit of $1.75, which just meets the cost of educating the enrollment for 1957-58," Parsons declared.

PARSONS OUTLINED a comparatice study of the tax wealth behind each pupil in the district, and said that "the Acalanes District is among the poorest in the Bay Area, and exceptionally low in comparison with some other Bay school districts."

Parsons added that "industrial and commercial development in an area like Pittsburg puts about $18,000 of taxable wealth behind each pupil as compared with the slightly more than $6000 in taxable wealth behind each pupil in the almost solidly residential Acalanes District area."

In answer to queries about the actual cost to the home owning taxpayer if the measure is passed, Parsons said "For a home with a market value of $20,000, the most that the new rate could mean is an additional 32 per month. However, since trustees hope to hold of taxing the limit as long as possible, initially the new limit would mean a tax of 30 to 50 cents higher than it is now.'"

Trustee William B. Freeman emphasized that, "Even though the district has had a tax limit of $1.75 for several years, the school board has avoided taxing at the limit until this year. We expect to continue that policy."

FREEMAN SAID, "If the tax limit proposal does not pass, the district will have to really lower educational standards, that is, increase considerably the number of pupils under each teacher, and pay teachers less competitive salaries and, as a result, fail to attract competent instructors, as well as stand the chance of losing some of the teachers we have to better paying districts with more favorable pupil-teacher ratios."

He added, "Students will have to learn in insufficient classroom space, with generally less than the effective minimum of everything—textbooks, instructional facilities and opportunities.

"In short, at a time when there is a national crisis that demands the most of education, this community's secondary schools will have to seriously curtail the educational standards set for our high school children. Our kids are the ones will suffer."

"The Parents Committee for the High School Tax Limit Proposal laid plan sfor the campaign, including three public meetings for discussion of the tax limit proposal with interested citizens and representatives of community organizations.

The meetings will be held Monday at Acalanes, Wednesday at Las Lomas, and February 3 at Miramonte.

"We hope that anyone who has a question in his mind about the proposal will attend one of these meetings," Mrs. J. E. Rinne, chairman of the committee's telephone subcommittee, said.

Bike Sale Called By Sheriff Brown

Sheriff Harry A. Brown will conduct a sheriff's sale of unclaimed property at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the parking lot adjacent to the Administration Building in Martinez.

Twenty-one boys' and one girl's bike will be auctioned, and miscellaneous automotive equipment, etc.

Sheriff Brown urged all boys and girls interested in purchasin a bicycle to attend the sale. He said particular attention would be paid to bids received from youngsters.

Group Will Seek Judge Candidates

An area committee has been formed, "for the purpose of seeking a qualified candidate for the office of judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District, soon to be vacant upon the retirement of Judge Clifford Thomson," Chairman John Den-Dulk announced.

Called the "Independent Attorney's Judicial Nominating Committee, it has members from Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Orinda.

Den-Dulk said that his group is seeking to interest a person of high ability and character in running for the post.

He added, "The judgeship of the Walnut Creek Judicial District, including Walnut Creek, Lafayete, Orinda, Moraga, and Canyon, is becoming of increasing importance with the growth of population in this area.

"As a matter of public interest as well as of self interest to attorneys, it is essential that the voters elect a person of integrity, good moral character, common sense and with a sound knowledge of the law and an abundance of court room and trial experience.

"We are seeking to interest a person of this calibre to run for person of this calibre u-r.yhH this important office," he concluded.

Members of the Committee include William Shannon Parrish, Owen M. Gentry, William D. Douglass and John D. Den-Dulk, of Orinda, William Channell, Frederic E. Van Dorn, Edward A. Goggin, Dale I. Stoops, Robert T. Anderson, Edward J. Rice and Paul L. May, of Lafayette, and Parley Anderson and Robert E. Cunningham of Walnut Creek.

Persons who have already said they will run for the job are George Walker, Mrs. Betsy Fitz-Gerald Rahn, and John Forde Jr.

U. S. Academy Appointments Exams are Told

Congressman John Baldwin of the U. S. Sixth District announced this week the appointment of young men to the armed forces academies, and named others to take examinations.

Allison Richard Hartman Jr. of Sky Terrace, Danville, is principle appointee to the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N. Y. Two Vallejo are first and second alternates, and Vernon Kenley of Lakewood Road, Walnut Creek is third alternate. There is one vacancy.

David L. Bourland of 33 Elliott Drive, Pleasant Hill is the principle appointee to the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. Thomas Greene Furgason of Walnut Lane, Lafayette is second alternate, and the others are from Vallejo.

Two Orinda men and a Lafayette man have been named with seven others to take a state wide examination for entry into the U. S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs. Date is July 8.

They are William Thurlow of Tappan Court, Orinda, Shailer Pickton of Sleepy Hollow Drive, Orinda, and Gene Vincent of Acampo Drive, Lafayette. Twenty three applicants from the entire state will qualify for the academy.

Named to take the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy examination on March 15 is McKie Roth Jr. of Glenside Drive, Lafayette and another man from El Cerrito. The Merchant Marine Academy is at Kings Point, N. Y.

Home Authority Changes Meeting

The Contra Costa Housing Authority announced today that it will hold its regular board meetings on the second Wednesday of each month at 4 p.m., according to Warren Harrold, acting executive director.

The commissioners of the authority amended the laws of the organization at the January 8 meeting. Meetings had been held the first Wednesday of the month at 5 p.m. at the Authority's headquarters on D Street in Martinez.

Big, bright, beautiful lamps—easiest way to redecorate your rooms
If you're looking for ideas to brighten up and modernize your interiors, (short of buying new furniture) . . . new tall table lamps may be just the dramatic touch you're looking for. Big, bold and beautiful—these lamps show off your good taste and add a smart new personality to the whole room. Of course, these lamps are more than daytime ornaments. With the right size bulb (three-way 30-200-230 or 50-200-250 watt) they glamourize your rooms with a soft even light that makes everything—furniture, fabrics and you—look better.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

On the sunny side of suburbia

RUMOR HAS IT that "ABSURDIA IN SUBURBIA" the Kingbe revived!

It is more than rumor, however.

For several years we've listened to people WISHING for its' return —"Whatever happened to it?", "Oh Heck, why DON'T we do it again!", "Gee, you can count on me!", "We heard SO MUCH about Absurdia before we moved here and WHERE is it?" . . .

This year we made only ONE New Year's resolution. And we didn't break it like we usually do.

Since Jan. 1 we've talked to a LOT of people and everyone's response has been wonderful! Everyone seems to agree the time is ripe to ready for another BIG SHOW, to let Newcomers have the fun we've had, to chuckle till our cheeks ache, to laugh till laryngitis sets in, to spoof ourselves & suburban ways, to feel TEN YEARS younger again!

The common denominator of LAUGHTER brings the whole community together on a happy (however hammy) basis and EVERYONE share a little limelight for it takes a lot of people (some 1300 in the last show) to tie up the final package of delightful froth that is known as ABSURDIA IN SUBURBIA. There's an old saying here — "You haven't lived until you've been in an ABSURDIA." Well, let's live a little. We could ALL use some laughs!

The enthusiasm at the mere mention of ABSURDIA is amazing, it's practically a communicable disease among Orindans. You'll be hearing more as we progress w/our resolution for this is one we intend to KEEP. IF you can help "get the show on the road," (perhaps for Fall) will you call us or talk about it w/your friends?

How lucky can you get?

You can hear Orinda's Mary Door, well-known for her radio & TV work, on an interestg. intervw. series, KRE Mon-thru Thurs. mornings 8:45! Jan 27,30 & Feb. 6 have been devoted to the East Bay Rehab Center.

YOU CAN WATCH for another pictorial story by Orindans Emmarie Gibbs Giellerup (the new Mrs. Alan G) and photog Don Jones (he just recently moved here) in LIVING mag, Feb. issue, a 4 pg. spread depicting a "Day In The Life of a Two Yr. old." The picture subject Nino Quiat, is the little son of Stanley & Mary Quiat of Walnut Creek.

In a future issue of EVERYWOMAN'S shopper mag will appear another story by Emmarie w/"Nprsery School" as its subject material.

HOW LUCKY CAN YOU GET? the penultimate in family portraiture of two boys and two girls for Bob & Leslie Corsie who recently welcomed a fourth child, second son. His name is Robby!

Eugene & Joan Garbarino whose second dghtr. (fourth child, too,) was born last November 23(named the young lady Alexa and she has built-in brothers Paul & Tim and a baby sister Claude). The Orinda dentist and his wife are currently enjoying a visit from his parents, the Victor Garbarinos, formery of Detroit who flew in recently from a European tour terminating a stint of duty on Saigon.

POTENTIAL PRESIDENTIAL MATERIAL is the new little man welcomed Jan. 5 to the Orinda Oaks menage of Marilyn & Bill Kauffman. How can he miss w/the very American name of Lincoln Adams? The couple also have fifteen-month old Susan.

Potential Horatio Alger — Imbued w/his own interest as a traveler in the Islands last year, Clifford Alberham, eldest son of the Mav Alberhams of Canon Dr. will Escort & Guide a special tour to Hawaii in August . . . If you start stuffing your piggy bank now, you can go along on this personalized tour which incl. an Aug. 4 sailing date aboard the S. S. Leilani recently refurbished w/the New Look.

RESERVATIONS AT RAMANOFFS tomorrow night for the Mel Colwells, Gene & Evie Hopper, the Fred Busseys & Michael Ferrones who will finish the evening in style after first attending the 5-8 Vintage Festival by Children's Hospital Branches at the Turf Club, Golden Gate Fields. Pat & Don McKechnie of LaSombra Ct. are also planning on a post-wine tasting dinner party.

IS'S A WOMAN'S WORLD . . . If you need a new Easter Bonnet (and WHO doesn't?) you might be as lucky as Phyll Hartanov was last yr. when she drew a doorprize & Merchandise Order for a Howard Hodge hat at the show-Chapeaux that Palm Branch will again sponsor (as a Children's Hospital benefit) this year wed. Feb. 5 at the Orinda Country Club.

WHO'S GOING . . . Hoping to hold the lucky hat ticket will be Jane Brobeck, Blossom Schmidt, Barbara Lincoln and Ada Francis Dawson who'll share a table or two w/Barbara Wayne, Millie Twining, Emma Usinger & Gertrude Ogden. Call Phyllis Hartanov for luncheon tickets, $3.50 — CL 4-3337.

And while we're at it, circle May 1, May Day for Cottonwood's Maypole Fashions by Benioff Lunch & Look Show at the Villa de laPaix. Call Dee Bussey 'bout tkts. — CL 4-4236.

Chacha plus Mambo equals Calypso!??

SUBLURBS . . . A new dance craze, the CHALYPSO, a cross between the ChaCha & the Mambo, will be included in the Cliffords' dance instructions for their class at Pine Grove Fri. nite . . . Margaret Moore, wife of Carleton Moore, artist & well-known cartoonist, has passed her realty exams and is hanging her hat (come to think of it, she NEVER wears one!) in the local office of Harvey & Reark! Pat Edwards is sharpening pencils & doing the "posting" for Dick DeLaveaga & Orinda Motors these days.

The William Gilmores were in the snow at the Sugar Bowl last wknd. and chased down the slopes w/George & Jackie Redmond, their neighbors, who just happened to be up there, too!

AND HOW INGENIOUS CAN YOU GET? When the Orinda Girls' League (8th graders) entertained last Fri. eve w/their first dance at the Acacia Dr. home of Winnie & Bill Gilmore, the winners of games played were awarded FIFTY CENT Merchandise Orders to "T-Bones" hotdog & hamburg haven which to the youngsters is like an adult's winning a meal ticket to a top restaurant.

Games, dancing and good records made for a gay young-set part, Diane Fastabend, Sue Ostrander, Lynne Roberts, Phil Hicks, Brian Traynor, Steve Beckett, Gary Wolf and Sue Nicolaisen among those having fun as were Bonnie Johnson, Allen Hill, Ronnie Kay, Roger McCosker, Mike Rolley and Greig Dewitt.

Carol Gilmore & Kathy Oliphant presided over the PUNCH BOWL and helping w/ refreshments, sandwiches & cookies provided by the league members were Patsy Kelley, Susie Starkman.

OTHERS IN THE PARTYING group were Vicky Tesman, Don Flenner, Keith Norback, Don Lansfield, Dave Dunning, John Reilly, Mike Saputo, Betsy Kilburn, Judy Hopkins, Bill Young and Rick Bowles, HEs' one of the partners in the BOWLES BROS. team that did so well w/DATES (the Calif. fruit kind) this past holiday season.

Another successful bridge-luncheon to benefit Mt. Diablo Therapy Center was hostessed by ORINDA ORIOLES members last Wed. at the Camino Sobrante home of Ruth Sergeant. Assisting the hostess at the cards & conversation party were Jean Harding, Hilja Case, Lola Tebbs, Lola Dyer and Pat Sergeant.

SOME LUNCH! One Orinda matron returning from a luncheon date at SIX-THIRTY loped through Lucky's filling a cart full of cans & on paying the cashier, hastened to remark she'd have dinner on the table in TEN minutes! Can you Beat It? Her record, we mean!

One of our helpful husbands, whose green thumb IS green, has been weeding for his wife on the past wknds . . . Last wk. Lady discovered nothing but dirt left in her newly-planted petunia btd and was quick to further discover sad little seedlings piled high in a heap of weeds. The pulled-out petunias were immediately transplanted on HUBBY'S dresser — with a note of not-so-sweet sarcasm attached! THAT'S SUBURIA for you!

Local Artist Showing Work In Berkeley

Preceding the County Young Republicans Installation Dance held Saturday evenings at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek, Jeri and Hans Beetz invited several couples for a pre-dance dinner at their home.

Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bates (Jean Bates has ben nominated for State Treasurer of the Young Reublicans), Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bolce (Bill Bolce was the Publicity Chairman for the Dance), Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. Don Baxter (Don Baxter is the vice-president of the Lafayette Young Republicans) Dr. and Mrs. Pat Golden and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heuer.

Mrs. Jeri Beetz was installed as corresponding secretary of the County Young Republicans at the dance last Saturday night.

Ray and Thesta Westpahl of North Lucille Lane also attended the County Republicans Installation Dance.

JERI BEETZ SERVED as a hostess at the Annual Membership Tea of the Lafayette Republican Women's Tea held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keyston of oMnticello Road.

Mrs. Beetz also serves as Treasurer of the Lafayette Young Republicans and for information concerning membership in the organization contact her at AT 4-4165.

In addition to her Republican activities Jeri is Secretary of the Mt. Diablo Panhellenic Group this year.

Cameron and Betty Ashby attended a dinner-dance sponsored by the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce at the Diablo Country Club on Saturday evening, January 18th. Cameron is the president of the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce.

JEFFREY BRUNER, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bruner of Helen Lane, celebrated his sixth birthday, Saturday, January 18th. He invited several of his playmates to his birthday celebration which had a circus theme. The cake was decorated like a carousel and the favors were gum drop clowns. His guests were Banty Wood, John Stearns, Fred Mohler, Susy Levsen, Richard Sandmann, Bobby Smith, Kirk Beetz, Douglas Ryan, John Von Colditz and Theresa and Stephen Bruner.

Jerrie Burnside of Dawkins Drive was the hostess Thursday evening, January 16th at a surprise neighborhood baby shower. Margeurite Sandmann was the honored guest; her youngest son was born January 6th at the Alta Bates Hospital in Berkeley. Those who attended the shower were Jeanne Latanner, Bernice Wilson, Pat Bruner, Marge Adams Dorothy Welsh, Ginny Levsen, Alice Blaschek, Janet Ginger, Joyce Hadsell, and Barbara Smith.

DOROTHY LUNDQUIST, President of the Lafayette Suburban Woman's Club, represented that organization Monday, January 13th, at the Mt. Diablo District Executive Board Meeting of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. The meeting was held at the First Christian Church in Concord.

Dorothy Lundquist will spend January 29th working at the District Office of Cystic Fibrosis in Oakland. Cystic Fibrosis is the philanthropic project of the Lafayette Suburban Woman's Club.

CHRISTOPHER WILTENS, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederik Wiltens of 3349 Mildred Lane, celebrated his first birthday January 10th. Four of Christopher's friends joined him in the afternoon to share his first birthday cake. His guests were David, John and Richard Olson and John McBride.

On Monday, January 13th, Mr. and Mrs. Frederik Wiltens entertained a Dutch Merchant Marine, Dick Vastenhout. The following day they made a tour of Mr. Vastenhout's ship, Dalervyk, and showed their guest the highlights of San Francisco.

Some Pyramids Are Reviving Despite Edict

Despite the reported circulation of "cease and refrain" orders from the California Commission of Corporations to certain people in the central county, Pyramid Clubs are undergoing a partial rejuvenation.

Donald Pearce, assistant commissioner of corporations, said recently that failure to comply with the order would result in criminal prosecution.

Although many pyramids came to a dead halt with the announcement of a "crack down" by the state, others continued to make limited progress last week, and others were reportedly going strong.

RUMORS ARE that a $10 pyramid had started in the Bay Area, and central county residents are in it. This pyramid matures in seven days after the person has given his or her "party."

Arguments concerning the legality of Pyramid Club activities continue to fly, and proponents continue to insist that they have good legal opinion that the Pyramids are not "lotteries" as contended by District Attorney Francis Collins' office and many other law enforcement officials.

The "cease and refrain" orders are supposed to have gone first to the law officers and police chiefs for distribution, but The Sun has not been able to locate any persons who have received them yet.

Rumors also are that the pyramids are going strongest in the Richmond, Pinole and Martinez areas.

ONE PERSON whose pyramid matured four weeks ago is still getting envelopes from as far away as San Francisco, he told The Sun.

Some people have informally questioned the jurisdiction of the Commission of Corporations, which claims that as an investment, alternative to being a lottery, the Pyramids are not registered.

A deputy district attorney said recently that although the Pyramids are lotteries and participation is a misdeamenor, no Pyramid parties will be raided without the filing of a complaint.

The next step apepars to be up to the California Commission of Corporations.

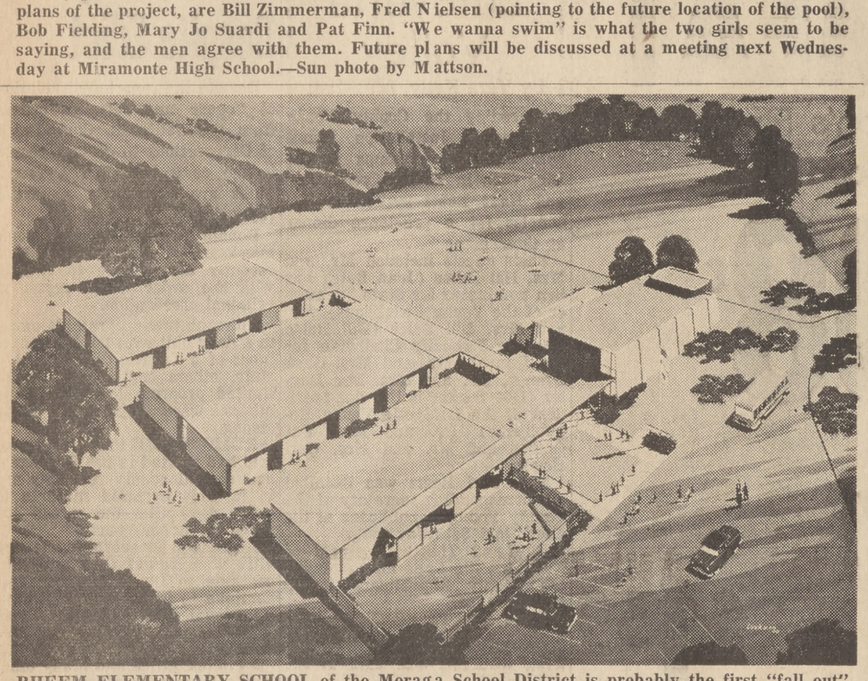
MORAGA VALLEY POOL is what this group envisions, despite recent fog and although the community pool is still to be built on a 7-acre site on Ivy Drive. Left to right, armed with a set of plans of the project, are Bill Zimmerman, Fred Nielsen (pointing to the future location of the pool), Bob Fielding, Mary Jo Suardi and Pat Finn. "We wanna swim" is what the two girls seem to be saying, and the men agree with them. Future plans will be discussed at a meeting next Wednesday at Miramonte High School.—Sun photo by Mattson.



RHEEM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL of the Moraga School District is probably the first "fall out" proof school in the Bay Area and has been designed by Jack Buchter, AIA, and Associates. The School will be located across from the Rheem Center Shopping District.

I Joined a Pyramid-- Then I 'Chickened Out'

By NORMAN COLBY

I haven't joined a pyramid, but I'm not entirely happy with my decision.

After all, look at all that money I could have made, and all those contacts I could have developed!

I almost joined, but chickened out at the last minute.

On a Saturday night I visited for several hours one of the hundreds of homes in the area where the pyramid game, sans the U. S. Mails, was going full blast.

It is a nice home in a nice residential district. The people are nice people, and have lived here all their lives. Their children are in their teens.

I met several dozen people, all of whom were either suave and confident, experienced in the ways of building and maintaining pyramids and the human beings in them—or else nervous, keyed up, and trying hard to conceal it.

The phone rang about 40 times while I was there. There was only one topic of conversation—pyramids.

I WAS EXTREMELY NERVOUS, for the prospect of parlaying four $1 bills into $4096 in only 11 days was dazzling. I kept asking myself secretly—can it really work?

My hostess excused herself every three or four minutes through their pyramid charts, covered with scribbled names and telephone numbers.

These men and women were also tense, but they tried to cover this fact by smiling fixedly, and enthusiastically proclaiming that their pyramids were going great guns!

Other callers stayed less time. Also well dressed and smiling, they each handed my hostess an envelope which had "$16" written on it. She had reached the top of her pyramid four days earlier, and the payoffs were beginning to arrive. She neatly stacked the envelopes with "16" on a bureau. There were a lot of them—20 or 30.

"I'm a nervous wreck!" she told me.

"You know, I've lost 11 pounds since this started. Some way to diet!"

"Do you want to join? I'll be glad to help you!"

I LOOKED ABOUT THE ROOM, where several people had spread their pyramid charts on the living room rug and were examining them. Two young men were handing their $4 to another young man, an area real estate salesman.

I nodded, yes and smiled, hoping that my doubts didn't show on my face. It wasn't the $4—I merely had the feeling that I was getting involved in something beyond my depth! I wondered where it would lead.

One woman sitting on a davenport across the room remarked to her companion, "We've got to get rid of Jones. My whole pyramid is okey except for him. He's been holding up the parade for three days. I'm going to call him and tell him he's out, and he'll get his $4 back."

Her confident replied, "But what if he doesn't want out?

She replied, "He's got to put up or shut up. He's had three days to get two guests. That's long enough. I know three people who would love to take his place because my pyramind is strong, otherwise."

I mulled over that remark about put up or shut up. This thing was so complicated that I had only the vaguest idea how it worked. How could I persuade two other people to come in?

My question was answered later in the evening by a photographer, about 30, who offered to replace one of his weak "legs" in his pyramid with me.

"Don't worry about explaining it," he confided to me.

He continued, "The best thing to do is not go into detail. You'll get muddled, and that scares them.

"I'll tell you what—we'll hold a party tomorrow night at my house. Bring your two, and there will be a lot of others there. I'll explain it to all of them then."

THE DEAL WAS SET. I was on my way to collecting $4096 in 11 days. During my visit I had drank four cups of coffee, and smoked three pipefuls of tobacco. But I felt pretty rocky. It was 1 a.m.

Actually, I felt like I had been drinking hi-balls all night, though no drinks were served.

If this miracle would come true, my wife and I could take care of several financial problems. We could use a newer car, and we had been talking about a Hi-Fi set for a long time.

This pyramid that I entered was strong. The "top guy" was taking no chances. He even said he was holding a conference of his "generals" the next morning.

Driving home in a daze, I saw that the lights in the home of a reporter friend were on. He and his wife were watching a late T.V. movie. I barged in, and accepted a drink, thinking—he will make a fine leg on my pyramid.

He listened quietly to my hurried, almost desperate explanation. He smiled and shook his head. It may not be legal, he said. Do you want to end up in the jug, he asked. He began to scribble figures which indicated that only the guys who get in early get paid off. Otherwise, where does the money come from- he asked.

I finished my drink, and drove home—deflated.

TO CONTINUE in this seemed to involve all sorts of things I don't like to do. Pressuring people for the sake of money, holding parties, admitting my sole interest is money, working for pie-in-the-sky. Deliberately, maneuvering for the sake of cash alone seemed to be a little rough for my delicate sensibilities!

But, to back out might be an admission to myself that I don't have those qualities necessary for building a pyramid, the qualities which make for getting things done, if you wish to look at it that way. It might be an admission of failure without trying.

My wife was no help. She said, do as you like.

So, the next day I called the fellow and backed out. He was cheerful and sympathetic, and I felt sheepish.

It was a relief, of course. But I think I know myself a little better as a result, and that knowledge is not comforting.

REAL COOL is the result of the prize money won by the students at the Pine Grove School for their 100 per cent score in the annual membership drive of the Orinda Mothers Club. The prize money was used to buy records for use at the school dances for the seventh and eighth graders. Principal Ted Boyce of the school receives the check from Mrs. G. B. S. Ricketts, who was in charge of the drive there, while, left to right, students George Hauer, Karen Stafford and Karen Rigor look over some of the records already being used. —Sun photo by Mattson

$150,000 Suit Filed Against Berl D. Bales

Parents of a 15-year-old Pleasant Hill High School student, who died of injuries sustained when he was struck by a pick-up truck New Year's Eve, have filed suit for $150,000 against the driver, Berl D. Bales of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Lewis, 998 Grayson Road, Pleasant Hill, parents of Steven Lewis, a "brilliant student," seek the $150,000 plus medical costs and other expenses for the wrongful death of their son, according to the suit.

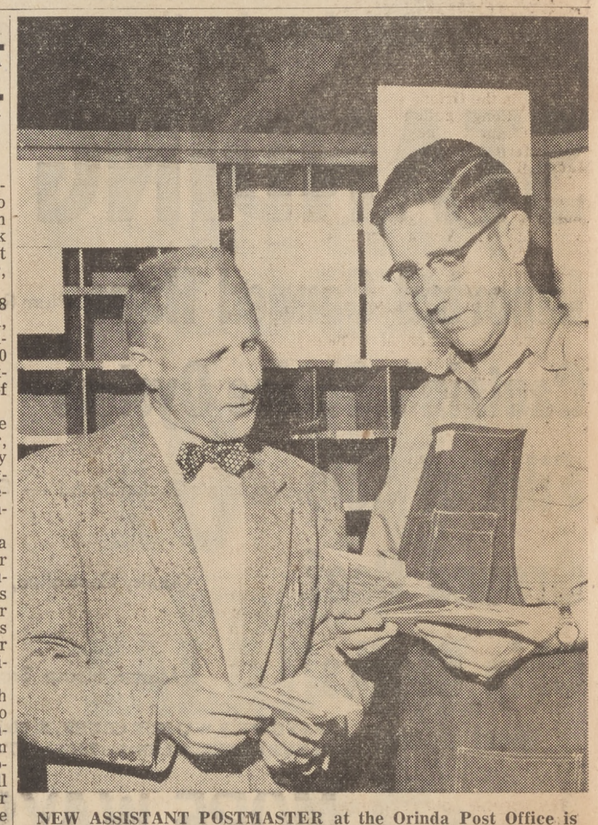
THE YOUNG EDITOR of the Pleasant Hill School newspaper, The Ram Page, was crushed by Bale's truck while he was changing a tire on Monument Boulevard He died January 2 in Concord Community Hospital.

The boy had been helping a classmate, Gary De Kat, a senior at PH High, fix a flat on Monument Boulevard. Lewis was standing at the rear of the car when struck by Bales and was crushed between the parked car and the truck, reported the California Highway Patrol.

Bales has been charged with felony manslaughter and will go to court February 5 before Concord Municipal Court Judge John L. Garaventa. David Levy, deputy district attorney who will prosecute the case in superior court, stated he would seek the maximum penalty.

THE MAXIMUM penalty for felony manslaughter with "gross and willful negligence is 10 years in state prison.

A coroner's jury inquest returned an "accidental death" verdict, but did not place any responsibility in the matter.



NEW ASSISTANT POSTMASTER at the Orinda Post Office is Edmund J. Doyle (left). He is shown checking mail with Larry Pinard, clerk. Youths Tell Of Thefts

Seven Pleasant Hill High School students who "drank their loot" were apprehended by the Contra Costa Sheriff's Office Monday, according to Frank Rizzo, juvenile control officer.

Rizzo said the boys have all admitted breaking into the warehouse and stealing whiskey, beer and wine. Not all the boys participated in all the raids, Rizzo commented.

The case was cracked, he said, when one of the boys was picked up for a "bomb scare" at a Walnut Creek school. Questioning of the youth brought about his confession in the liquor burglaries.

The boys explained that they would enter the warehouse in the late afternoon before private patrols hired to watch the area started their work.

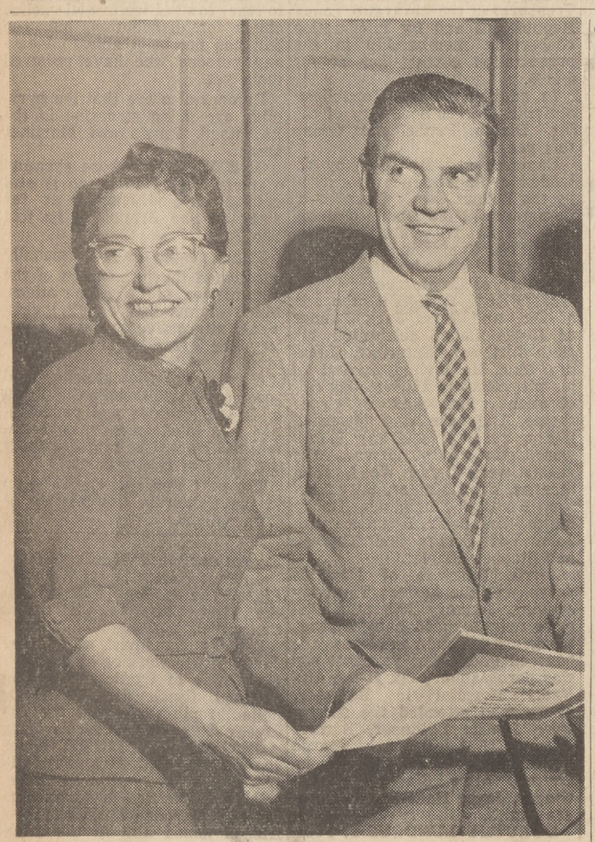
The youngsters either drank what they had stolen or gave it to friends, they confessed.

BURTON OLSON of Orinda, polio victim in August, 1956, expresses his appreciation of the public's early support of the current March of Dimes campaign. "The cost of medical treatment for polio," Olson states, "is prohibitive for most families. It is reassuring that financial help can be continued by the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis." After months of confinement at Children's Hospital in San Francisco, followed by intensive therapy at a rehabilitation center, Olson is continuing therapy locally in an effort to leave his wheelchair and be ambulatory with braces and Canadian crutches.

Orinda School Parents to Meet

Is the Orinda Club an effective organization? This and other questions will be asked of Orinda School parents only at a special meeting for that particular group on Wednesday at 7:4 in the Orinda School auditorium.

All parents of children attending Orinda School are invited to attend and to participate in a panel discussion and to share their ideas, questions and problems in relation to their children, their school and the present organization. Orinda School coordinator Mrs. Charles Hanks and Orinda School room mother chairman Mrs. Leonard Roth have arranged for the meeting through Mothers Club.



MRS. DAN LUCAS of Orinda is March of Dimes coordinator for the Orinda-Moraga-Canyon-Lafayette area. She is shown here with Stan Hunn, Orinda co-chairman of the anti-polio fund-raising drive, along with Al Baer. The month-long campaign will culminate next Friday night with the annual Fathers' March on Polio, when dads garbed as moms will go from house to house and solicit financial contributions.

Foreign Pupils Will Address Women's Guild

The monthly meeting and luncheon of the Women's Guild of the Orinda Community Church will be held February 4 in Fellowship Hall at 12 noon. Child care will be provided for the children of mothers wishing to attend.

The program will feature four foreign exchange students speaking on differences between our country and theirs. They are attending Acalanes and Miramonte High Schools, and are Agneta Persson, Sweden; Eberhard Umbach, Germany; Irmgard Sieber, Austria, and Carlos DeMiguel, Spain.

Mario Guarneri of Orinda will be the musical attraction. He will play the trumpet and will be accompanied on the piano by his sister, Rosalie.

To Hold Joint Meet

M. P. Superak of Lafayette, new president of the organization, announces that the East Bay Structural Engineers Society will hold a joint meeting at 7 o'clock tonight with the East Bay Chapter of the International Conference of Building Officials at Onstad's Restaurant, San Leandro.

In addition to Superak, 1958 officers recently elected by the Structural Engineers Society include Douglass R. Judd, vice-president, and MacGregor Graham, secretary-treasurer. The society holds its regular monthly meeting the third Wednesday of each month at the Villa De La Paix, Oakland.

Orinda Voters To Meet Demo Aspirants

Voters in Orinda will have the opportunity to meet five potential Democratic candidates for Congress from the Sixth Congressional District, at the regular meeting of the Orinda Democratic Club Thursday at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Lance Barden, 44 Crest View Drive.

Present at the meeting will be Howard Jewell, Orinda Attorney; Craig Randall, Concord Attorney; John J. Sheridan, labor leader of Richmond; Ira Gunn, former city manager of Walnut Creek; and Fred Nettles, a Pacheco businessman.

In addition to the candidates for Congress, Jerome Waldie an Antioch attorney, who is a candidate for the State Assembly, will be present.

"Local Democrats are urged to attend this meeting and make the acquaintance of these candidates before the endorsing convention in Martinez February 1," said Barden.

Entire Troop Of Girl Scouts Will Get Badge

Families of members of Girl Scout Troop 11, Orinda, will be guests at a Court of Awards at 7:30 tonight, in the all-purpose room at Glorietta School.

The entire troop will receive the First Class badge. Girls receiving this badge will be Nancy Baker, Susan Bnds, Nancy Brailsford, Jan Currier, Susan Fernstein, Wendy Minor, Carrol Nelson, Rorie Smith, Jan Schneider, Cay Williams and Julie Winkworth.

There will be entertainment, and refreshments will be served.

Citizens' Group Slates Meeting On Recorder Pay

A meeting of taxpayers in Contra Costa who are interested in authorizing litigation against the $400 a month retirement pension of ousted County Recorded Ralph Cunningham will be held in the office of Jackson Davis, attorney, in the near future.

Intention to hold the meeting was jointly anounced by Davis and Mrs. Mark Vallory to establish a time table and to lay plans for the organization of a committee to set up legal proceedings in the matter.

DAVIS, A PROMINENT trial attorney has offered his services free of charge to the group.

Cunningham was found guilty by a superior court jury in a non-criminal trial of malfeasence in office on two counts.

Indian Styles Will Highlight Benefit Event

Contra Costa youngsters and their families have been invited to attend the American Indian dinnner and costume showing which will be held tomorrow at 7 p.m. at the First Christian Church hall at 29th Street and Fairmont Avenue in Oakland.

Arranged by the people of the Intertribal Friendship House, the show will include, an addition to old and new fashions of the American Indians, the showing of colored slides by Professor Lucretia Nelson of the Department of Decorative Art of the University of California on the art of American Indians throughout the United States.

4 Miramonte Students Named By AFS Group

The American Field Service Committee of Orinda has announced the names of four Miramonte students who have been chosen as candidates for the AFS Summer Program in Europe.

Their names will be sent to the American Field Service headquarters in New York, which will later inform the Orinda committee what homes are available in Europe and whether one student or all four may go.

High schools all over the country are sending in the names of their candidates. Students who are finally selected will leave from New York on a student ship and will spend six weeks in the home of a European family. The Miramonte candidates are Linda Lancione, Bill Cline, Babette Ambler and Barbara Stross.

Chairman of the summer candidate committee is Mrs. George Vurek.

Seeks Blood

Mrs. Virginia Bryan of 94 Palana Court, Walnut Creek, this week requested any persons who are able to donate blood, to call her in the evening.

Mrs. Bryan said that her father, Walter Fischer, is extremely ill in the Kaiser Hospital on Geary Street, San Francisco. She has provided blood to the maximum allowable by hospital authorities, and she has sold many personal possessions to pay for blood donations. Hospital doctors say that much more blood is needed, she added.

Fanning in Key Equitable Post

Paul J. Fanning of 15 Ivy Drive, Orinda, is now district manager for the Coombs Agency of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, in the Lafayette - Orinda - Walnut Creek - Pleasant Hill area. The Equitable office in this area is at 2078 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

He was recently transferred here from Richmond, where he was district manager for six months. He established the society's district office in Richmond in July, 1957. Prior to that he was an agent for Equitable in the Central Contra Costa County area for several years.

Orinda Burglar

A burglar who plied his trade once to often in the same place was apprehended by Sheriff's Deputies last Friday.

Richard S. Cole, 25, of Oakland, who caused Leo J. Troy, the owner of the Associated Station in Orinda to develop ulcers, is being held in Contra Costa County jail in lieu of $1500 bail.

He will face arraignment before Judge Sam Hall January 24.

According to reports of the Sheriff's office, the department set a trap for Cole at the service station. Sheriff's detective Harold "Bud" Hobert said Cole had money in his billfold stolen from the gas station and his hands were still marked with a detection powder sprinkled on the safe.

Van Horn Dies When Plane Hits

Harry Edward Van Horn Jr., 42, wealthy tractor and automobile dealer in Walnut Creek for five years until he retired and moved to the Colusa area, died instantly Wednesday evening when the private plane he was landing at the Colusa field struck a 50,000 volt power pole insulator, and crashed.

Van Horn was returning from a flight to Buchanan Field in Contra Costa County where he arranged to buy a part for his sports car.

Field attendants said that he was attempting to land his $13,000 plane downwind, without circling the field, and came in to low, striking the high tension pole with one wing.

The plane veered off and crashed into a nearby field.

Van Horn held instrument and commercial pilot licenses, and was considered an excellent pilot. He had participated several times in the Hayward to Tucson, Ariz., races. He owned the plane for two years, and previously owned another plane.

During World War II, he was operating manager of Encinal Terminals, Alameda, and bought a farm equipment and tractor sales firm in Walnut Creek about 1952. He went into the auto sales sales business in 1955, and retired last July.

Van Horn, his wife, Margaret, son, Harry III, and daughter Karen, then went to live on the family ranch in Grimes, near Colusa.

Survivors include members of his immediate family, and his father, H. E. Van Horn Sr., retired president of Encinal Terminals, Alameda.

Highway Group To Get Report On Bypass Work

Announcement of the annual meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation for Thursday, February 6, was made yesterday by Chairman Elliot Hartman of Lafayette.

He stated the meeting will be held in Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, at 8p.m. and that the program will include two speakers associated with the construcion of the Walnut Creek Bypass who will give a progress report describing the various stages of construction and the detours involved as the pork progresses.

They are Haig Ayanian, assistand district engineer in charge of construction for District IV of the State Division of Highways, and Robert Kenning, chief engineer of Charles L. Harney Company, the contractor.

Election of officers and directors will also take place at the February 6 meeting. A cordial invitation, Hartman declareó, is extended to all interested in the construction of the Walnut Creek Bypass.

World Scene Is Tuesday Night Topic

Prospects for a solution of points of controversy between the United States and Soviet Russia were examined at Acalanes Adult Center Tuesday.

This was one of the main topics of discussion in the "Background of the News" course, conducted by Dr. Robert W. Desmond, experienced foreign news correspondent and editor, and professor at the University of California. The course is held each Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. and is open to interested persons.

The invitation from Russia's Premier Bulganin for a new summit conference, President Eisenhower's counter-proposal for preliminary discussions at a lower level, and British Prime Minister Macmillian's suggestion for a non-aggression agreement all give a timeliness to this issue, Dr. Desmond said last week, after an examination of the President's State of the Union and Budget messages.

"If low-level or high-level conferences offer any hope in the present critical world situation," he said, "those possibilities need to be explored most earnestly. The alternative is a back-breaking financial burden for years to come, if not a devastating war or a defeat on the political and economic front."

AFS Selects Donna Hunt To Travel

Donna Hunt, Acalanes junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hunt of 3925 North Peardale Drive, Lafayette, has been named by American Field Service to participate in the AFS summer European program..

Miss Hunt will spend the summer with a family on the continent. Last year Acalanes students Alan Hewitt and Ernie Fox stayed with families in Germany and France under AFS auspices.

Two foreign students are currently attending Acalanes with AFS sponsorship: Irmgard Sieber, from Austria; Carlos De Miguel, from Spain.

Miss Hunt is a member of the California Scholarship Federation, the Acalanes High School honor society Acalhonors, Junior Statesmen, and AFS, and is editor of the school's semi-annual literary magazine, The Don.

She will leave for Europe in June and return in the fall to tell her fellow students the impressions, friendships and understanding of European problems gained during her sojourn abroad.

Dan Funk, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Funk of 3976 Canyon Road, Lafayette, was named alternate for Miss Hunt.

San Francisco Opera House Plans 3 Events

Moss and Hayman Attractions, concert management, will inaugurate the New Year with three important events during January and February. Two in the Opera House and one scheduled for the Veterans Auditorium.

The first of these will be the song recital of Metropolitan Opera baritone Leonard Warren on Monday, at the Veterans Auditorium.

Next Friday, Russian pianist Emil Gilels will make his only Northern California appearance. This will be this artist's first visit to the coast.

Gilels is recognized as one of the great pianists of the world. Concert is booked into the Opera House.

Another artist will make his first appearance here, when Russian violinist Leonid Kogan will be heard in recital at the Opera House, February 16.

This will be the first visit of this great musician to the United States and the San Francisco concert will be the only one heard in Northern California during the artist's tour this season.

Mrs. Hazlett To Minnesota

Mrs. Thomas Hazlett of 1060 Homestead Avenue, Walnut Creek, left last week for Minneapolis, Minn., where she will discuss with surgeons of the University of Minnesota the feasibility of open heart surgery.

She has been ill since before Christmas. She said she hopes to return home within a month.

Sweet Tooth?... Camp Fire Girls Will Sell Candy

Local Camp Fire Girls and their junior Blue Bird sisters of District III of the Central Contra Costa Council are preparing to launch their effort in the annual Camp Fire Girls candy sale held throughout the West.

Approximately 350 girls representing 37 groups in District III, which comprises Orinda, Moraga, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Alamo and Danville, will begin their house-to-house calls beginning next Friday.

Proceeds from the sale, which will continue for two weeks, will be used to extend the Camp Fire program in these communities and allow more girls to participate in summer camp activities. The candy sale is the primary source of revenue for the Camp Fire Girls.

Richard Prada of 2359 Warren Road, Walnut Creek, has been named 1958 chairman of the district candy sale, according to Dean La Lield of Lafayette, head of the district.

In addition to house sale, Praad's plans include establishment of at least one exclusive "retail store" in both Lafayette and Walnut Creek, as well as booths in all communities concerned through the cooperation of local merchants.

Goal of the local drive is 10 per cent higher than last year's record sales, which will mean selling more than three tons of the chocolate-covered creamy Camp Fire mints, a perennial favorite with children and adults alike.

Folks in a hurry prefer small, compact camp stoves rather than an open flame or coal fire for cooking while camping.

Key System Bridge Rails -- Let's Leave Them Alone

The Key System tracks should not be removed from the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge — at least at the moment.

This statement has appeared in The Sun many, many times during the past few months, and it will probably keep on appearing until the fate of the tracks is decided permanently.

Why do we keep "harping" on this subject? Why does The Sun adhere to this idea?

Because there is so much confusion existing over the rapid transit proposals and the fate of Key System that to do something as drastic and permanent as removing the rails now would be a major error.

Incidentally, this is not our idea alone. Many of the Bay Area cities hold the same philosophy, including San Francisco, and of course, the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District objects to removal of the rails at this time.

On the other hand, the Five-County Rapid Transit Board has taken no stand on the matter at all, and this is deserving of criticism.

Certainly if anybody should have an opinion on this matter it is the largest transit authority in the area, but the attitude has been that it is more or less out of their hands and in the hands of the Public Utilities Commission, and that they wouldn't recommend either way.

How can we have confidence in the planning of a board that operates this way? If the board isn't big enough, and this issue isn't important enough to require a statement of policy and a decision, how can we trust its judgment when it comes to spending millions of dollars for an area rapid transit system?

The board has come out with a resolution asking the PUC to study the matter, but this is still merely sidestepping the issue and amounts to failure to render a decision on what is certainly a very important issue.

So what are we going to do?

We think that some sort of agreement should be reached among the various transit bodies, the PUC, Key System and others involved. But until a workable plan is achieved and some sort of agreement exists, we urge that the tracks remain where they are.

After all, it would be awfully expensive to make the wrong decision and then have to remedy it — and probably at the taxpayers' expense.

The hearings that are being conducted now by the PUC seem to prove more than ever that the tracks should not be removed. If there is so much argument continually being waged on both sides, it would certainly be wrong to take drastic action, such as removal, before the issues are clarified.

Let's leave the tracks there — at least for now.

...Now Friends, It's Time To 'LIVE MORBID' Again

by Pat Pending

I'm so utterly (not to be confused with milk cows) disgusted with T. V. shows and commercials that I'm writing one of my own. I feel that I owe it to my readers.

Incidently, I'm in favor of Pay TV — I think the sponsors of most shows should pay us viewers for watching them! Anyway, here's a typical Pat Pending production:

Foist, we gotta have a commercial (you know what a commercial is — it's when the sound suddenly gets louder)!

"LIVE MORBID! Smoke P.B.'s! P. B. has a pure black filter inside so you can't see the millions of little flavor buds that clutter up your lungs and a pure black filter outside." And the tobacco — P. U! P. B.'s are made by the same company that manufactures Hurry Hurry. Hurry Hurry is unique! You light both ends and smoke towards the middle! Isn't this cozy? You're really livin', ain't you? Watch out! Philbrick, you've got that five o'clock shadow again!"

Now for the famous Pending quote of the week:

"Never the twain shall meet!"

Twains shouldn't meet — causes too much rubbish! (Apologies to Elmer Fudd.)

Now for the main event:

CEREAL STORY

Chopter Ate

(This is a story with real meat in it.)

Foist of all, the cast. We gotta have a cast. How far can you throw? Artie Choke is the hero. The heorine is Heroin and she's a real dope! Par Snip is her old man and he's par for the course (the course is on the European Plan).

NOW HEROIN is real sent on Artie because he earns a large celery and so always has plenty of lettuce.

Let us proceed!

The villian is unknown but a real dead beet with spinach on his chin. His main fault; he gargles with garlic every morning and uses that new deodorant, Stench. And, if you use Stench, you've had it!

Mutt Dullon is after the villian (at a good,safe distance) because he has another bad habit. He sneaks around giving people a million dollars and this makes the government mad because the Income Tax collectors have to work just that much harder. Besides that, it causes inflation.

Shy Anne is Mutt's gal friend which is somewhat of a coincidence. Mutt seems to favor Chess Turr and spends most of his spare time on the plot because he enjoys tumbling weeds.

All these interesting characters finally meet (I said this story would have "meet" in it!) at the Short Stem Saloon in Chevrolet City (I hope to get General Motors as my sponsor) and things begin to happen!

Continued next week. Same time. Same Station.

Letters to The Editor

BOOKS ON TEETH

DEAR EDITOR:

(Editor's note: All letters to the editor on the subject of fluoridation must be not more than 150 words in length. If they are longer, the editor will shorten them as required.)

Dear Editor:

The Joint Committee on Health Problems in Education of the National Education Association and the American Medical Association, one of the oldest joint committees of either organization, formed in 1911, stated in a joint resolution that it:

"Recommends the informing of the public by in-school and extra-school educational programs of the value and safety of fluoridation as a caries-prevention measure."

The writer wrote to the American Medican Association for general references for classroom teaching, receiving the following publications:

"Report to the Mayor on Fluoridation for New York City" (submitted by he Board of Health of the City of New York).

"Our Children's Teeth," prepared by the Committee to Protect Our Children's Teeth, Inc., 105 East 22nd Street, N. Y. 10.

"Fluoridation Information Materials," prepared by the American Dental Association.

RICHARD W. LELAND

THANK YOU

DEAR EDITOR:

On behalf of Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay, I wish to express our gratitude for your cooperation in seeing that our wants were given such good publicity in The Sun during the past year.

Mrs. Schiedermayer is most grateful to you for your cooperation during her two years of working with you, as are all the members of the branch.

ELIZABETH GRIFFITH

RECOGNITION

DEAR EDITOR:

I have just noted in the envelope containing the statement for the renewal of our subscription to the Sun papers the summary of the outstanding recognition received by the Sun papers during the past six years since 1951.

This is a most remarkable record and outstanding achievement.

You are to be highly congratulated for the very fine work you have done to attain the numerous awards won by the Sun papers.

You certainly are entitled to personal congratulations for the excellence of your column, Mr. Silverman, entitled "Under the Sun."

Under The Sun

Snoopy asks if our county Heads are bunch of bums

By Herman Silverman

Several months ago I wrote a column urging our County Board of Supervisors to work toward establishing a mental health program using state funds, which were allocated by the last legislature. A belated congratulations to the supervisors for taking favorable action.

We heard some talk about the need for consolidation of our fire districts. The county was to study this. I haven't heard anything lately, have you?

Last week The Sun printed an open letter to the supervisors, commending them for taking an interest in a county department — law enforcement problems of the sheriff's department. We have long felt that the supervisors should take more intrest in the honesty and efficiency of ALL county departments.

In the open letter, we urged the supervisors to call in District Attorney Frances Collins and ask about the problems raised by the last Grand Jury pertaining to the DA and his office.

Your money is being wasted

As you know, The DA and his staff are spending thousands upon thousands of YOUR dollars each year—on their private law practices. And there are too many criminal charges being dropped or reduced by the DA.

So far we have not heard an answer from the Board. You might ask Supervisors Ray Taylor or Mel Nielsen about it.

"Boss, you must think the Board of Supervisors are a bunch of bums," said Snoopy, the office cat.

You must be reading over my shoulder, Snoopy.

No, I don't think so. I agree The Sun should compliment them more for the good things they do. But there are so many questionable things going on in the county that, frankly, our space must be devoted to these problems.

Some good, some bad

Some of our county officials are excellent; others are okay; and others are terrible. This includes the supervisors. And it should also include other units of local government —the various districts and cities.

The Sun should hand out more praise but, in the meanwhile, there is work to be done cleaning up our messes.

Shall we start this again?

"Hey, boss," purred Snoopy, "What has happened to the Great Battle of Fluoridation?"

Well, Snoopy, this column hasn't talked about it because so many people carried the ball in the letters-to-the-editor column last summer and fall. But the Letters' Battle had to be stopped because it finally was serving no purpose. The letters started getting personal and didn't offer anything new.

When there is anything new on fluoridation of our water supply, we certainly shall print it. In fact, there is something new and important. Here is a memo just received

The reaffirmation of water fluoridation by the American Medical Association was viewed editorially today by The Journal of the American Dental Association as still another reason why no community should deprive its children of the measure's benefits.

The A.M.A.'s policy-making House of Delegates on December 5 adopted a report on the measure prepared by its Council on Drugs and Council on Foods and Nutrition.

Children are being denied

"Now that the nation's leading authorities have, once again, attested the safety aspect of fluoridation", the editorial said, "and the country's leading dental authorities have vouched for its anti-cariogenic (tooth decay prevention) aspects—both of which properties also are recognized by leading public health authorities—there is no reason why any community, interested in the health and well-being of its children, should withhold from them the benefits of properly fluoridated drinking water."

The text of the editorial follows:

"The long awaited report on fluoridation prepared by the Council on Drugs and the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association was approved by the House of Delegates —the policy-making body of the American Medical Association— at its 11th Annual Clinical Session December 5th.

"This action of the American Medical Association reaffirms — in stronger language — the policy expressed by that organization in 1951 that: "The use of drinking water containing up to one part per million of fluoride is safe."

"The present report states in part that "no evidence has been found since the 1951 statement by the councils to prove that continuous ingestion of water containing the equivalent of approximately one part per million of fluoride for long periods by large segments of the population is harmful to the general health."

That's the end of the memo.

When will it be?

Despite statements to the contrary, fluoridation is something that we should and must have. Some people oppose it on religious grounds. That is their right. However, they accept chlorination of our water supply. Others oppose fluoridation for other reasons—personal choice, nutrition, etc. And that is their right, too.

Then, there are others who are just plain mis-informed and still others who make it their "business" to lead campaigns against it.

This is a free country and everyone has a right to his own opinion. But no one has a right to deny the majority of citizens that which has been proven essential to the health of our children.

The board of directors of East Bay Municipal Utility District and officials of California Water Company are doing just that. They hide behind legal arguments and other devices but they aren't kidding anyone.

Pro-fluoridation committees are meeting. They are not enough. The Junior Chambers once sponsored fluoridation as one of their major projects. I hope they will start again. The Parent-Teachers Association is on record—and let them get to work. Ditto other parent groups. Our County Health Department is active and should continue to be so. What about you and your organization?

Green Peas, Anyone?

By DICK OSBORN

We're on the green pea circuit in Central Contra Costa County.

But it's not a bad circuit in which to find yourself, especially when you consider the people you meet in between courses.

The circuit to which I am referring is the round of chamber of commerce installations, award banquets, etc. that are occurring one after the other, from Orinda to Pleasant Hill.

Orinda has finished its round of events, but Lafayette has one banquet going tonight, and so does Pleasant Hill. Walnut Creek is recovering from its chamber meeting last week but has a junior chamber awards banquet to look forward to tomorrow.

Now where do all the people come from who attend these gatherings with the bright light of convivial friendship in their eyes?,

Why, generally speaking, they come from right next door.

I'll bet you'll even be surprised yourself to know how many people in the community you really know. It was an interesting experience for me, at a recent banquet, to have the pleasure of introducing a guest who knew practically no one at the party.

Going through about 400 introductions can be a mental strain, but it is not half as hard as one would think, because the people are really all old friends.

The interesting thing about these dinners is this. They all follow about the same pattern, because they are similar affairs, but each has the distinctive stamp of its own community. If it is a Walnut Creek affair it will be a little different from one held in Orinda, or Lafayette, or Pleasant Hill.

But the common denominator is the pleasant atmosphere and friendly attitude of those participating.

You know, you don't really have to be a "big wheel" to enjoy one of these community affairs.

In fact, you don't have to be any kind of wheel at all, and you might be surprised to find out just how much fun they can be.

It's a little late to take in the Orinda function, but if you live in Lafayette, Walnut Creek or Pleasant Hill, there are banquets put on by the respective Junior Chambers of Commerce tonight and tomorrow night.

If you haven't made reservations, why not do so right now. You'll meet a lot of fine people, and I'll bet you'll be surprised at how much fun you'll have.

I know I'll be there! Wouldn't miss it for the world.

Vanessa Music Will Be Played

San Francisco will be the first city anywhere to hear music in concert form from Samuel Barber's new operatic hit "Vanessa." It will be presented at the San Francisco Symphony's first "Pop" concert of the season Saturday, February 1.

With the special permission of the producers, Andre Kostelanetz will conduct an arangement of the opera's Fourth Act "Intermezzo."

Kostelanetz' "Pop" program next week also brings Gershwin's dynamic Concerto in F with Leonid Hambro as piano soloist. Also to be introduced locally will be two striking new works: Ferde Grofe's "Hudson River Suite" and Brazilian composer Villa-Lobos' "Memories of Youth," along with the popular favorites "Bolero" by Ravel and Weber's "Invitation to the Dance."

Africa Is Forum's Subject

The spring series of the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum will open on Tuesday at the Diablo County Club. Phillip Cummings, educator, sociologist and geographer of Vermont's Middlebury College will speak.

His subject will be Africa. He has lived on the "Dark Continent" and recently returned from a year's trip there.

Dr. Cummings is a noted scholar and has studied in American universities as well as those in Spain and France.

His news analyses are obtained by finding out how people all over the world feel about current international problems.

Mrs. Howard Flanders is coordinator of the Forum series. Committee for the opening event includes Mesdames Stanley Friden, program director; William Hale, Jr., arrangements; William Boyd, refreshments; Gerald Deardorff, decorations.

Mesdames Robert Bartlett, John Blemer and George Towle will be in charge of the reservations table.

Others on the committe are Mrs. Jackson Calvin and Mrs. J. H. Gillan at the ticket baskets and Mrs. Clifton Moore, press contact.

The Forum will open with a 10 a.m. coffee hour preceding the program. The spring series, as well as individual programs, are open to the public. Interested persons may obtain tickets at the door the morning of the program.

Confab Prelude Will Be on TV

KQED, the award winning educational television station in San Francisco, is joining with St. Mary's College to present a half-hour TV show on the purposes of the Business and Industrial Executives Symposium Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock.

The participants in the TV program are Adrian J. Falk, conference chairman; Benjamin Frankel, professor at St. Mary's, and Desmond G. Fitzgerald, professor at the University of San Francisco.

The television program will be a prelude to the actual symposium, which will be held next Wednesday and Thursday at St. Mary's College.

Therapy Center Elects Hoey

The Board of Directors of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center elected Francis Hoey, Martinez attorney, president for the 1958 term at a meeting held at the Center, January 14.

President Hoey was installed by retiring President Samuel Bradbard, Pleasant Hill attorney.

Hoey has served as chairman of the Membership Fund Drive now in progress.

Other officers elected are Vice-President John E. McKirahan of Lafayette, San Francisco mining executive; Mrs. J. R. Lar Rieu of Walnut Creek, Secretary; Donald D. Nesbit of Lafayette, Administer of Oakland Kaiser Foundation Hospital, treasurer.

Directors elected to serve on the 1958 Board include Gerald Ball, of the Board of Fire Underwriters and residing in Pleasant Hill; Simeon Jeffries, Orinda accountant; Dr. E. R. Ligon, Lafayette optometrist; Claude M. McPhee of Walnut Creek, secretary and assistant manager of the Central Contra Costa County Sanitary District.

Mrs. Harold Parker of Moraga, serving her second term as a director; F. R. Rippingham, oil company executive and resident of Pittsburg; Julian Ramelli, resident of Walnut Creek and bank assistant cashier, Don Rasmussen, member of a surgical supply company and resident of Alamo; William Sharkey, Jr., of Martinez, newspaper publisher; James Simonds, Lafayette contractor, and Charles A. Wood, Jr., San Francisco attorney, resident of Martinez.

Engmans Deviled by Coincidence

The long arm of coincidence is knocking the heck out of the Harold E. Engmans of Orinda and the Harold A. Engmans of Lafayette.

Four years ago both families lived in Palo Alto, and each was blessed at about the same time with the arrival of a baby boy.

Although they have never met, they soon came to know of the other's existance by the dozens of congratulation phone calls from people who were justifiably confused.

Then, unknown to each other, Harold E. Engman and his wife, Billie moved to 9 Robert Road, Orinda, and Harold A. Engman and his wife, Gladys moved to 3470 LaCaminita, Lafayette.

That would have been okay, but on last December 30, Harold and Billie had another little boy, David, at the Kaiser Hospital in Oakland.

The day afterwards, December 31, Harold and Gladys had a little girl at Kaiser Hosfital in Walnut Creek.

So the phone calls began again, and the Harold E. and Billie and Harold A. and Gladys learned to their mutual dismay that they were stuck with those other Engmans again!

Said Billie, wife of Harold E., "I guess we had better try to keep track of the other Engmans in the future so we'll know what they're talking about when the phone calls start."

Hear Attorney

The Mount Diablo Business and Professional Women's club met Wednesday at the Danville Hotel to hear Mrs. Betsy FitzGerald Rahn, Walnut Creek attorney, seak on "Career Advancement."

Mrs. Scotty Pencovic presided, assisted by Miss Mae Coldren, career advancement chairman.

Game Dance Is Tonight

An after-game dance will be held at Walnut Creek Recreation Center tonight from 9 to 12 p.m.

All players, spectators, and other students from both Las Lomas High School and Pacifica High are invited to attend.

The dance is sponsored by the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission. Admission is 15 cents per person and includes all the refreshments and soft drinks anyone can eat or drink.

Dance arrangements have been made by Irene Norton and Joe Bailey of the Recreation Department staff, assisted by Nancy Hawthorne, Commissioner of Social Events at Las Lomas High School and her committee of students.

Jack Kennedy and his band will provide the music.

Political Aspirants Seek Democratic Endorsement

Martin E. Rothenberg, Pittsburg city Attorney, chairman of the Democratic Candidates Research Committee of Contra Costa County, announced today that six Democratic aspirants have state officially that they will seek endorsement of the Democratic Pre-Primary Convention to be held in Martinez February 1.

S. C. Masterson, Richmond attorney and incumbent assemblyman, 11th District, will seek endorsement for the Tenth Assembly District race.

THE INTERESTED candidates who will vie for endorsement for the Sixth District Congressional Seat are Ira E. Gunn, Walnut Creek, former Walnut Creek city manager; Howard H. Jewel of Orinda, Oakland attorney; Craig S. Randall, Pleasant Hill, Berkeley attorney, and John J. Sheridan, Richmond City Councilman.

Each of the six have indicated that they will abide by the endorsement of the convention although such a pledge is not a requirement for nomination or endorsement at the convention. Other persons may submit their names for endorsement at the convention.

The committee, a joint committee of the Contra Costa County Democratic Central Committee and County Federation of Democratic Clubs, has received from the six announced candidates a completed questionaire concerning background, qualifications and positions on important issues, which will be made available to all of the delegates prior to the convention.

Other candidates will have an opportunity to distribute their own informational material at the convention.

THE COMMITTEE has conducted a candidates preference poll among a large number of active Democrats, prepared the lengthy questionnaire for potential candidates and will make the questionnaire available for study by the delegates.

Christian Science Sermon: 'Truth'

That the healing, saving power of the Christ, Truth is always present will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1247 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Truth" will include the following from Matthew (9:35): "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and reaching the gospel sickness and every disease among the people."

Correlative selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (494:30): "Our Master cast out devils (evils) and healed the sick. It should be said of his followers also, that they cast fear and all evil out of themselves and others and healed the sick. God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago. All of Truth is not understood: hence its healing power is not fully demonstrated. of the kingdom, and healing every"

Jewish Services Will Be Tonight

The Friday evening services will be held tonight at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, starting at 8:30. Dr. H. Hirsch Cohen, the rabbi of the congregation, will conduct the services and preach the sermon.

The candle-lighting and blessing of the wine will be under the direction of the Center religious chairman, Fred Katzberg of Walnut Creek.

The oneg shabat, a reception for the Sabbath, will be under the direction of Mrs. Fred Katzberg, of Walnut Creek, League of Jewish Women Sisterhood oneg shabat chairman.

Nurses Planning Mental Health Discussions

The Contra Costa School Nurses Organization will hold a meeting on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Brentwood Intermediate School.

"Mental Health in Schools" will be the topic. Chairman will be Mrs. Jane Krigin, a Mt. Diablo School District nurse.

Junior Center Has New Display

A new exhibit on communications is being shown at the Junior Center of Arts in Mosswood Park through the month of March. The display includes early radio equipment, modern hi-fi, telephones, burglar alarms, fire bells and the evolution of movies.

Mrs. Oliver Hamlin of Lafayette is a newly elected member of the Board of Trustees of the Junior Center of Arts; she will serve as corresonding secretary during 1958.

Outgoing trustees, whose terms expire this month, include Mrs. E. M. Barker and Mrs. Marshall Shapiro of Orinda.

A luncheon was held January 16 at the Junior Center of Arts to honor the new and old officers and members of the board.

SF Symphony to Begin Youth Concert Series

The San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will perform Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., at Las Lomas High School, in the first of the 1958 Youth Concert series.

Earl Murray will conduct and comment on the music selected. Season tickets, which include several special programs, will be available at the door for $3.50, according to Mrs. Tudor Jones Jr., ticket chairman.

The program will include Little Fugue in G Minor by Bach, Nocturne for strings by Borodin, The Hen by Rameau, Symphony No. 4 in F Minor, op 36, first movement, by Tschaikowsky, concerto for percussion by Milhaud, with Roland Kohloff, soloist, and music from "The Maid or Arles" by Bizet.

OF SPECIAL interest will be the performance done by the percussion soloist Kohloff, who has played with some of America's leading symphony orchestras.

He is a new addition to the San Francisco Symphony. The solo part which he plays in "Concerto for Percussion" demands four timpani, bass drum, three snare drums of different sizes, suspended cymbal, clashed cymbals, gong, slapstick, castanets, wood block, triangle, cowbell and ratchet.

"Nocturne for Strings" demonstrates the largest and most important section of the orchestra —the strings, for they generally carry the melody.

"Symphony No. 4 in F minor," op 36, tells the story of the clash between good and evil, and also introduces the child to the feeling of the minor mood in music.

EARL MURRAY, conductor and commentator, represents the fourth generation of a family of professional musicians.

He began his musical training at the age of 6, and first conducted a school orchestra at the age of 12.

At 16, he was engaged as a member of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, and is the youngest person ever to join the orchestra. Subsequently, he became rehearsal conductor for Pierre Monteux, was appointed assistant conductor during the 1952-53 season and associate conductor in 1956. In 1951 he was awarded the highest honor, "Disciple of Monteux."

Hadassah Help To Israel Told

A stimulating gathering, in connection with the general membership meeting, was held by Diablo Valley Chapter of Hadassah last night at the home of Mrs. Stanley Harris, 50 Donna Maria, Orinda.

Mrs. Milton Greenstein of Lafayette gave the background on Hadassah's vocational training and education, with special emphasis on the work that Hadassah is doing in helping Israel help itself.

An addition to the program was a review by Mrs. Leonard Goldberg of Concord, of an article from Hadassah's National News Report entitled "Congress Convenes - a Forecast."

After the program, refreshments were served.

Illness Causes Concert Changes

Two sets of San Francisco Symhony spring concerts are affected by the illness of guest soloists, manager Howard K. Skinner said this week.

Cellist Gregor Piatigorsky, slated to appear jointly with Isaac Stern February 19-20-21, will be replaced by the gifted American-born concert artist and Toscanini protege Leonard Rose.

The second cancellation regretfully announced by the S. F. Symphony Association concerns pianist Clara Haskil, who was to have performed at the March 12-13-14 concerts. The program for these dates has been changed to an all-orchestral one conducted by the orchestra's maestro Enrique Jorda.

Alpha Xi Delta Alums to Present Typewriter Here

The Diablo Valley Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta is presenting a typewriter to the Buena Vista School in Walnut Creek for use in the Integrated Braille and Sightsaving classes.

This is the only such program in the public schools in this area.

The presentation is being made today by Mrs. William J. Bolce, Jr. of Lafayette, philanthropy chairman for the fraternity's alumnae chapter here.

This gift is one of the chapter's local philanthropies, and is in keeping with the national philanthropy policy of Alpha Xi Delta which is working with the Save the Children Federation.

Meadowbrook to Hold Parties On Saturdays

Meadowbrook Golf Club in Reliez Valley will introduce an innovation in its social activities tomorrow evening. This party, "Saturday Night at the Club," will inaugurate a policy of holding open house at Meadowbrook on free Saturdays for members

During the winter months the informal fraternizing of most country clubs suffers, except for the most hardy of golfers. Meadowbrook plans to remedy that situation by hanging out the latchstring on a regular basis.

An "internal membership" committee, led by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schlaman, has been formed for the purpose.

Arranging refreshments and hors d'oeuvres are Messrs. and Mesdames Donald Hupman, Dale Risdon and John Correia. Mr. and Mrs. Karl Weinzheimer are music chairmen.

Also included on the general committee are Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Copenhagen, Albert McBride, George Gill, Thomas Montague, Andrew Ward Jr. and Arthur E. Bell.

Vacationing

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson, 4033 Los Arabis Drive, Lafayette, are currently vacationing in Mexico City's fashionable Hotel Del Prado.

Republican Women to Hold Fashion Luncheon

A fashion luncheon sponsored jointly by the Republican Women's Clubs of Contra Costa County will be held on February 5 at Diablo Country Club.

Entitled "Valentine Fantasy," it will feature clothes of the members of the American Designers Institute, including such names as Lillia Ann, David Gaines, Nathalie Nicoli and Foret.

Mrs. Mel Neilsen of Lafayette has selected members from each of the sponsoring clubs to model the fashions. The James Clausen poodles will be on hand to accompany the models.

Modeling from Lafayette will be: Mesdames William D. Higgins, Don E. Norman, George Shank, M. Pierce Milton, William McGuire and Miss Jo Anne Hess.

FROM DANVILLE-Alamo will be Mesdames William Boyd, C. Wadsworth White, George Paterson, Harlan Gelderman, Harvey Hanrahan and Miss Virginia Berryhill, from Walnut Creek, Mesdames Alden Mackay, Robert Rowe, Hollis McLaughin, Jack Dana and Miss Mary Lyn Archibald, from Orinda, Mesdames James Read, Don Parle White Philip Muscheid, Calvin Hagstrom and William Keating.

The Diablo Country Club will be decorated in Valentine motif by Mrs. E. C. Counter Jr. of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. L. C. Keading, Richmond, is chairman and co-chairman is Mrs. Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. L. N. Hartman of Kensington, Fashion Chairman, has selected spring fashions so new that they will have been seen by buyers of local stores only days before their showing at the luncheon!

Others assisting in planning what promises to be a high point in spring fashions are as follows: tickets and reservations, Mrs. J. D. Farley, Lafayette; press secretary, Mrs. John L. Tokich, Orinda; awards, Mrs. F. Young, Walnut Creek; hostess, Mrs. G C. Gibbs, Diablo; programs, Mrs. A. A. Nickel, Walnut Creek.

AREA CHAIRMEN are Mesdames Raleigh Gullixson, Kensington; W. B. Bliss, El Cerrito; E. Hughes, Richmond and San Pablo; A. P. Reck, Orinda; J. D. Farley, Lafayette; A. V. Davi, Pittsburg; E. R. Tesche, Martinez; J. H. Gillan, Pleasant Hill; E. W. Smith, Walnut Creek; M. D. Osborn, Danville, San Ramon and Diablo; William Cakebread and George Chapman, Antioch; and Howard Richman, Concord.

Tickets for the luncheon-fashion show are priced at $3.50 and reservations must be made in advance.

At present, table reservations have been made for Mesdames Perc Brown, A. P. Reck, Marvin Kennedy and A. H. Bastian of Orinda; Harold Paige, T. E. Louis, Bernard Morris, Will Hall, Charles Lindberg and Gordon Holmes of Lafayette; Hugh Miller of Danville; E. C. Counter and E. Wells Smith of Walnut Creek; W. B. Bliss, El Cerrito; Glen Gibbs of Diablo; Robert Livermore of San Ramon; and Howard Richman, Concord.

Flicker Unit Luncheon Set

The Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will present its annual luncheon and Fashion parade Febrauray 15 at the Castlewood Country Club.

Mrs. Richard Lieber, chairman of the show, has appointed Mrs. Clayton Southard and Mrs. John Goldeen, chairmen of decoration to carry out the traditional "With You In View" theme.

Models have been chosen from the 12 branches of the Therapy Center. In addition, teen-age members of the Junior Units and daughters of the members of the Flicker Unit will present preschool and school fashions.

Paul Speegle, noted wit and commentator, will describe the many exciting spring creations from Goldman's of Oakland and Walnut Creek. A number of young boys will present the latest masculine styles from Grodin's of California.

Mrs. Raymond Williams is co-chairman of the day, and Mrs. Robert Schroeder is in charge of door prizes. Mrs. Robert Patrick is preparing the programs.

This style extravaganza, which annually attracts over 600 Bay Area women benefits the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Norman Fletcher.

Raggedy Ann Calendar Tea Plans Formulated

Committees are busily working on plans for the Calendar Tea and Program to be given by the Raggedy Ann Chapter of Children's Home Society February 18.

The Diablo Country Club will be the locale of the group's "Fantasy of Seasons"-the theme of the afternoon. Twelve of the chapters of the Society will decorate tables in keeping with the decor of each month of the year.

Judging of exhibit tables will be by popular vote with a sweepstakes and second prize to be awarded. Exhibits may be viewed at 1 p.m. The program at 2 p.m., and tea at 3 p.m.

Chapters participating include: Sleepy Hollow, Kim, ABC, Heidi, Hansel and Gretel, BoPeep, Robon Hood, Pandora, Humpty Dumpty, Jiminy Cricket, Pied Piper and Miss Muffett.

Mrs. Jack V. Shahbazian has assumed chairmanship duties with Mrs. Ben Dykes assisting with music; Mrs. Wallace Cook, Mrs. Harold Williams taking charge of decorations. Mrs. Charles Lurmann will take charge of the tea tables.

The program will feature the "Colloettes" a musical group from Oakland.

Ticket Chairman is Mrs. Sidney Williams. Tickets may be obtained by calling Yellowstone 4-4579.

All proceeds go to the statewide agency to provide essential services to children. Children's Home Society is a member of the United Crusade.

A JUNE WEDDING is planned by Diane Obermuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Obermuller of 389 Hermosa Court, Lafayette, and Dennis Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Perry of Berkeley. —Hal Mattson photo

Mrs. McKay Is Walnut's Chairman

Members of the Walnut Branch, Childrens Hospital of the East Bay, held their first meeting of 1958 at the home of Mrs. Robert Bruen of Walnut Creek.

New officers assumed their duties for the first time. Mesdames Alden Mackay, chairman; King Crosno, vice-chairman; Philip Schiedermayer, secretary; D. Charles Williams, treasurer; John Griffith, corresponding secretary; George Smith, Membership; William Imbrie, publicity.

Mrs. Williams, a resident of Lafayette, was named for the eighth time by the Hospital's Executive Council as a "Woman of the Year" among the branches for her outstanding service to the Hospital.

In 1957, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ernest E. Rowland of Walnut Creek, the Walnut Branch was once again one of the top earning groups of the Hospital.

New members recently welcomed to the Branch are Mesdames Edmund Boero of Walnut Creek, Alan Brooks of Lafayette, Norval Carey of Danville, Jack Davis of Walnut Creek, Rodney R. Hall of Lafayette and Thomas W. Taylor of Lafayette.

The new members are taking an active part in planning Branch activities. Highlights for the spring include the Easter Fair at the Claremont Hotel March 6 thru 9 and the 13th annual Festival of Flowers and Fashions at the Howard gardens in Walnut Creek to be given in May.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER
YE 4-3818

Those "ever-lovin' " Larks are ever so busy with plans for their Mardi Gras, which will be here before we know it. Held, again this year, at the Diablo Country Club—the theme will be built around song titles depicted by hats.

This dinner dance, which is always one the most FUN affairs of the year, will be held February 8. Mrs. George McAuliffe, chairman, reports that tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Edward Ageneo, AT 3-6484. Better start working on your chappeau. Only thought I've had so far is to don an Indian chief's feather bonnet: guess who? "Sweet Sioux" Ugh!

Home from south of the border

Billie and Don Campbell have returned from a wonderful (all by their lonesomes) trip to Mexico City; traveling by air. They were most impressed with prices of food, which were much lower than here—and delicious, too! $2.50 for a tremendous steak dinner—WH-AT!

Was interested to see in The Sun (where else), that there was a Fresno County Club in this area—so being an old Fresno-ite myself, checked into it. Sure enough, the club has been in progress for)30 years or more Last week, members from several bay area units gathered at Mrs. Irvin Pollard's home in Walnut Creek for luncheon and to hear a book review by Mrs. Alta Jones. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Victoria Braves, club president.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Floyd Stinnet's home on Mariposa Way on the third Wednesday of February. Viola Stinnett is a member of the Flickers as is Evelyn Stedding, another gal from "down the valley," who will be there. Such a nice place to be FROM, Fresno!

And it was a real blast!

Past presidents of the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce were honored with a dinner dance last Saturday at Diablo Country Club. They were given special gifts in appreciation for their services.

There were many pre-dance parties—one at the lovely Carl Noecker home on the Country Club grounds. Margaret Noecker, in the heighth of style, was wearing a shimmering print in shades of orange with matching slippers. Some of the guests were Antone Cvietusas, Larry Davitts, Ted Schroeders (Julie wearing a dream of a black dress, the neckline and shoulders of a transparent material—lined, of COURSE), Charles Bowers (Phylis wore a black pleated cocktail skirt topped with a black boucle blouse—festively trimmed), Frank Marcellinis, Lou Kellers, Ed Larmers, Herman Silvermans and Sen. George Miller and his attractive wife.

It's never too late to hear more about the Bing Crosby Pro-Amateur Tournament, and many thanks to the thoughtful gal who reported that there's something about the weekend that draws many Contra Costans. The fresh breezes, the beautiful scenery, and excellent golf attract thousands, and sprinkled among the crowds were several well known C.C.C. residents. Although the rain was not falling on the Pebble Beach course, the winds were strong—and bundled against the elements were Terry Ring, avidly watching Bob Rosburg on the 17th hole, and the Art Schwatkas of Orinda, busily comparing notes of the day's outcome with the Phillip Merrills.

Sunday found the Don Normans (Grace formerly lived in Lafayette) and the Charles Blacks in the crowd of spectators. Spotted at the "Hearthstone," which was a popular evening gathering place, were the Jon Nunans of Springhill Road.

Something new—a party for FUN

Coming up in the very near future is the annual Art League's "Party for FUN." The members of this very energetic group of East Bay matrons holds its spring dinner dance at the home of one of the members and this year the party will be February 8 at Virginia and Edmund Barnett's home in Lafayette.

Many members of the league are from this area—for instance, besides the Barnetts, there are the William Greuners (junior)), Warren Hudsons, Timothy Colvins, Ted Gardiners, Lyle Lunds, Oliver Hamlins, Phil Merrills, Walt Scammells, Grant Kauffmans, Peter Howards and Dave Simpsons—all (the wives, that is) hard working members whose chief aim is to provide funds for interested students for the various classes held at the Junior Center of Arts in Oakland.

In the Claire Burke home in Pleasant Hill, there is much speculation going on, and, I must say, Claire has plenty of time to speculate—as he is convalescing in the hospital following a serious automobile accident from which he is recovering nicely. Anyway, back to the pont—Mary Jane is awaiting Mr. Stork about the middle of March.

The Burkes already have two boys. One is a brunette, the other a blonde and Mary Jane is a red-head. So, what NOW?

Heap big fun at Squaw Valley

Dorothy and Bill Thompson (of Pleasant Hill) and the Charles Howards (of Danville) have returned from a wonderful vacation at Squaw Valley. They also enjoyed a stay at King's Beach. The Hummingbirds recently entertained with their membership tea which was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Lawson in Walnut Creek. The decorations were simply lovely—the colors used—yellow and white.

There were lovely arrangements of white stock, white chrysanthemums and yellow lilies flanked with yellow candles. Claire Lawson was assisted with decorations by Mrs. Bob Franklin. Guests of the unit were Frances Cannon, Betty Conte, Ellen Custard, Eunice Kilkenny, Joan Madrigali, Roberta Spitzazk and Lynn Wilson.

Mrs. Steven Szybalski, the new president, proudly introduced Mrs. Juanita Benoy who gave a most inspirational talk about the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, of which she is director. "Fantasia Cookies," coffee and tea were served later by Pearl Barrett and Virginia Franklin.

Glee and Ted Beem have just returned from a week's coastal tour. After taking in the tournament at Pebble Beach (stayed at the Carmel Valley Inn) they traveled on to Santa Cruz where they spent a heavenly few days at the fabulous "Pasatiempa" motel—raved about it!

Before their vacation, the Beems hosted a gay evening of lancing and fun. Glee wore a red silk dress—VERY bouffant. At midnight, a sumptuous buffet supper was served. A few of the guests were the Del Wilcoxes, John Glovers, Lyle Powells, William Riches and the Charlie Stimpsons—with Mary Stimpson wearing the most luscious red organdy gown.

Much talk about the Flicker Fashion Show and luncheon to be held soon—always a delightful afternoon. More on that later.

Ann Howard Betrothal Is Announced

The engagement of Miss Anne L. Howard of 2385 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek, and Lyle B. Morton of 3240 Rogers Avenue, Pleasant Hill, was announced at a gathering of friends at her home, December 28.

Anne also told her Delta Zeta sorority sisters at the University of California the news early this month.

Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Howard of Walnut Boulevard.

Mr. Morton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morton, and is stationed as a private first class with the 77th Division, Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

He was home for two weeks during the Christmas season.

An open house was held by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Kraemer of Oak Road, on December 29, and a tea will be held in the near future.

The couple will be married next winter.

Club Will Hear Book Review

The Book Section of the Lafayette Women's Club will hear a review of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys" by Max Shulman at 1:30 p.m. next Tuesday, to be given by Mrs. Herman Silverman, associate publisher of The Sun.

The meeting will be at the Veterans Memorial Building, in the downstairs room.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Earl Plescia and chairman Mrs. Harry Sims.

Orioles Hold Bridge-Luncheon

The Camino Sobrante, Orinda, home of Mrs. John Sergeant was the setting Wednesday for another of the Orinda Orioles' successful bridge-luncheons to benefit the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Fashion Show Will Benefit Enchanted Hills

Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu Sorority has announced plans are underway for their annual Benefit Dessert Fashion Show, to be held this year at the Hotel Claremont. March 1 at 12:30 p.m.

The theme selected will be "Pacific Potpourri" and will feature fashions for both women and children as presented by Jo Ann's of Walnut Creek and Shoo-Time Shopping of Lafayette.

Proceeds will be presented to the Enchanted Hills Summer Camp for recreation for the blind.

Mrs. Robert Fitch of Pleasant Hill is general chairman and has invited the public to make reservations with Mrs. Thomas Dufour, 3022 Ludel Court, Pleasant Hill.

Maryann Jones Is Bride of Wm. Patterson

Maryann Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones of 3651 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, became the bride of William Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Albert Patterson of 174 Canyon Drive, Orinda, at a 4 p.m. ceremony Monday at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. Jack Biersdorf of Orinda Community Church performed the ceremony, which was attended by members of the immediate families. Spring flowers served as a decorative motif.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds went to an undisclosed destination for a honeymoon. They will make their home in Lafayette.

Among those at the wedding were the parents and grandparents of the bride and groom.

Maryann, a Stanford University graduate, works as a legal secretary in Richmond.

The groom is in business in Orinda. He is a veteran of the Marine Corps and is a graduate of the University of Washington.

Garden Club Topic to Be Vegetables

The regular "New Years" dinner meeting of the Mount Diablo Men's Garden Club will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in the Solar Room of the El Monte Drive In restaurant on Cowell Road in Conord.

Special events will be on the program in addition to the regular meeting.

The subject will be "Your Vegetable Garden in 1958." Herman Sandkuhle, manager of the Sunset Nursery at Danville will speak.

The panel will be under the direction of Dr. Fred E. Heitman of Lafayette, assisted by Stanley E. McElroy of the Clayton Valley Nurserv of Concord. The subject is a radical departure from flower gardening which has been the main topic of the club for the past ten years.

This meeting will also have an extended business session which will include the election of officers for the coming year.

Plans for the annual birthday party will also be discussed. A number of questions have arisen as to whether ladies should be included in the affair, what kind of a party should be held this year, and whether the officers should be installed at this meeting or a special meting of the Club.

Because the State Highway Commission has now agreed to landseape the completed sections of freeways in the County, the question of continuing the Club effort to include county roads will be debated.

Also on the agenda is what other civic enterprises should the Club embark upon this coming growing season.

AAUW Plans Series Of Section Meetings

The Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women announced section meetings.

"Status of Women" is Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Edmund Young, 185 Wayne Court, Walnut Creek.

"Art" is Monday at 8 p.m. in room 20, Walnut Creek School. Mrs. John Grover will speak on ballet and demonstrate various aspects of it.

Her talk will include descriptions of the various schools of ballet and choreography notation.

Adult and children's art classes by Betty Pleshe will begin in February with the dates to be arranged.

History of piano literature by Tanya Ury will begin in February, and will include lecture and performance by Miss Ury, Mrs. Dorothy Perry will provide further information about these classes, to be held on Wednesdays.

"Garden" will be Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Wilson, 3552 Silver Springs Road, Lafayette.

The Garden and Lafayette Applied Art Sections will combine to hear Mr. Edward Munz, president of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, speak on "Roadside Beautification". Husbands are invited.

"Education" is Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Harold Martin, 142 Smith Road, Danville. Mrs. Martin will present a survey of gifted child programs in California Schools. Husbands are invited.

"Lafayette Applied Arts" is February 11 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. L. Burch Snyder, 824 Solano Drive, Lafayette.

Mrs. Glen Bas has worked for ten years in the Cooperative Art Association which sponsors children's art classes. She will speak on "Art in the Home."

Hummingbirds Hold Tea for New Members

The Hummingbird Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center held a Membership Tea on January 15 at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Lawson, Hawthorne Drive, Walnut Creek.

President Mrs. Steven Szybalski, and Membership Chairman Mrs. Merv. Ortez greeted the new members. They are Mesdames Jud Cannon, George Conti, Jason Custard, J. P. Ellisondo, Charles Jacobs, Carl Jorgenson, Paul Kilkenny, Joseph Madrigali, Robert Spitzack, and Edward Wilson.

A talk on the work of the Therapy Center was given by Mrs. Benov, Director of the Center.

Mrs. Robert Franklin and Mrs. Wayne Barratt presided over the tea-pots.

Indoctrination Tea Scheduled

The Indoctrination Tea of the children's Home Society will be attended by the following members of Heidi Chapter, Lafayette: The mesdames Kenneth Keller, W. M. Towers, Robert B. Freema, Don Blackwood, Jack Campbell, Ledru Frank, Glenn Stubblefield and Heidi president Mrs. Robert Lockney.

Hoop Season Nears Halfway Mark

Diablo, Pitt Head League PH Closes

The Contra Costa section of the Diablo Valley Athletic League is nearing the midway point in the schedule with Mt. Diablo the only undefeated varsity club to date and the Pittsburg Bees in the same category in the lightweight division.

The varsity race appears to be definitely between Diablo and Pitt. Pitt has one loss—that to the Red Devils to whom they lost 47-38 Friday night.

THE ODDS are heavy that Diablo or Pitt will win. Pitt plays the Devils at home next time around and that could be the big one.

Pitt's lightweights look good, but not far enough ahead of the field to coast — for that matter neither can the varsities!

Games tonight with the Bees opening at 7:30 are Las Lomas at Pacifica.

The Pleasant Hill Rams got the skids knocked out from under them Tuesday afternoon when they traveled to Pittsburg to drop a pair of league games.

In the Bee game, it was a go all the way with Pitt copping the nod 47-43.

IN THE VARSITY game the Pirates were red hot at the hoop as they connected on 23 of 51 floor shots for a blazing 47 percent. The Rams shot a respectable 32 percent when they netted 16 of 49 shots.

The Pirates hit in double figures in every quarter as they raced to a 14-9 first quarter lead.

The Rams pulled up to within one point of Pitt midway in the second period when the count was 14-13 only to have a Pirate barrage put them in front 27-19 at the half.

Pitt increased the spread in the third quarter outscoring the invaders 16-14 and wound up with a 20-14 final quarter advantage to win 63-47.

THE RAMS did alright in the rebound department winning there 32-30. In addition, sensational Ram junior forward Bill Locatelli came away with individual game scoring honors with a grand total of 19 on seven field goals and five free throws.

Pitt's best was forward Willie Coston with 16 on five field goals and six free throws.

Meow! Cry Cats Knights 47-38 On Antioch Woods

The Las Lomas varsity took a 47-38 win over the Antioch Panthers Friday night, but dropped the Bee game in a low scoring 24-14 contest.

Pat Brown of Antioch lead the scoring with 13 points while Jim Sister hit for six for the Knights.

THE GAMES, played at the new Antioch gym, found the Knights putting 10 players in the scoring column as the registered a comfortable 47-38 win paced by sophmore forward Tom Nichols who hit for 13 on five field goals and three free throws.

It was a tight 11-10 Knight lead in the first quarter and wound up with the Walnut Creek club still ahead 22-18 at the half.

In the third quarter Nichols, Lou Miller and Dave Weil hit two hoops apiece to pace a 16 point output while Antioch bagged 10.

RESERVES FITTED in and Antioch managed a 10-10 draw in the final quarter.

Statistics gave Las Lomas 19-18 edge in field goals and Antioch the nod on free throws 14-9.

The figures showed Las Lomas held a 39-25 edge in rebounds. In the shotting from the floor the Knights hit 19 for 16 while Antioch put in 12 for 49.

Dons Nab 2 From Mats

The Acalanes Dons were up Friday night and as a result they served up a pair of hoop wins in a hurry.

The Dons came through with their best to date in the varsity tilt as they posted a 11-6 first quarter lead, then swept to a commanding 28-10 half time advantage.

DWAINE STULTS entered as an Acalanes sub late in the opening quarter and meshed two quick ones to put the Dons on fire and that, coupled with a Miramonte five that went cold at the hoop, resulted in a 58-37 Acalanes win.

The Dons outscored the home club 12-11 in the third quarter and 18-16 in the final stanza to insure the win.

Don center John Phair copped scoring honors with 15 while guard Dave Bojarsky, besides playing a fine floor game, collected a cool 11.

The Matador's ace, Bill Houston, wound up with 10 markers as did Stuls for Acalanes.

THE DONS posed 22 field goals to 12 for the Mats and led in the free throw column 14-13.

In the Bee game, coach Jack Carhart's Acalanes v club registered a 36-16 win. Caldwell of Miramonte and Dan Lippert of Acalanes tied for scoring honors with eight apiece.

Sparta Hauls Mats to Mat

The Pacifica High School wrestling team dumped Miramonte in a meeting at the Orindat Gym on January 10 by a score of 31-21.

Winners for Miramonte by falls were Gail Dishong over Loyde Emery in the 147 pound class and John Roberts over Bob Jones in the 193 pound division.

Matadors winning decisions were Charles Pfeifer in the 140 class over Jack McKinley, and Ron Brown in the 175 pound division over Jay Menez.

Pacifica's 103 pounder, Jack Erwin, pinned David Wright while in the 122 weight Harry Hatch of Pacifica tossed John Thune.

Last Second Goal Kills Ram Hopes At Spartanville

The Pleasant Hill Rams lost a toughie Friday night when Pacifica dropped them in an overtime 47-38.

The Rams were thrown into a tie when Sparta's George Trotter potted a hook shot from the key with nine seconds to go in the tilt at 35-35.

IN THE OVERTIME Pacifica really went to work garnering 12 markers to the Rams three.

The Spartans dozen points came in two field goals by Bob La Pointe, another hit by Trotter, plus two field goals and two free tosses by Benny Westbrook.

The game was slow in the score column in the early stages with Pacifica leading 6-5 at the quarter and 16-11 at the half.

The Spartans are tough at home, but still the edge goes to the Knights who for one thing have more depth and good height to match Sparta on the boards.

MIRAMONTE has a tough one in the Diablo Devils whom they play at Concord.

It would be rough at home, but playing away makes the Red Devils a heavy favorite.

Pleasant Hill has been an in and outer, but figures to topple the Dons at the Acalanes gym. The Dons have had center John Phair and Mac Hancock out, but even with their return, it still looks like a night for the Rams.

PITT PLAYS Antioch and odds are P.H. will win.

Tuesday afternoon Diablo plays at Pleasant Hill, Pitt at Las Lomas, Acalanes at Antioch and Pacifica at Miramonte.

The Rams took fire in the third quarter with an 18 point outburst to tie it up at 29 all. In the last canto, it was touch and go until Trotter's pot shot tied it all up and forced the game into overtime.

In the Bee game, Pleasant Hill racked up a 40-23 win with Bill March getting 13 points and Ron Yamamoto collecting 12 for the winners. Don Morris and Gene Wright had six each for the Spartans.

Gratis License Policy Clarified

Recipients of Federal Social Security or other pensions are not eligible for free fishing licenses unless they also receive the official state old age pension, the Department of Fish and Game reminded California state pension recipients today.

The department has had to turn down many requests from pensioners who are not eligible.

Among California pensioners, only those receiving aid to the aged under the State of California Old Age Security Law are eligible for free sport fishing licenses and stamps under a new law passed by the 1957 Legislature.

Totally disabled war veterans, upon the presentation of proof of an honorable discharge from service and proof of service-connected total disability (100 percent) in the form of a certification from the Veterans Administration, are also entitled to the free licenses.

Blind persons are also eligible for free licenses under certain limitations.

Application forms for the free licenses may be obtained at Department of Fish and Game regional offices in Redding, Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno, and Los Angeles, and from the department's headquarters office at 722 Capitol Avenue, Sacramento.

Completed forms with certifications must be sent to the Sacramento headquarters office, 722 Capitol Avenue, Sacramento. The free licenses are issued only by the Department's headquarters office. Applications for disabled veterans are also available through county veterans service officers.

Visitors Pack Model Railroad Annual Show

A large crowd of visitors attended the model railroad show held recently in Walnut Creek.

As many as six trains at one time were operated on the miniature track layout. The weary club members were greatly pleased at the fine attendance by the end of the show.

The latest estimate indicates some 2200 visitors came to see the model railroad in action.

Superintendent Dave Westcott and his maintenance crew were rewarded for their long hours of preparation work by the manner in which all trains operated without mechanical difficulty.

The track had been cleaned and polished so there were no unexpected derailments.

President J. L. Melady of the Walnut Creek Model Railroad Society expressed his regret to those who were inconvenienced by the temporary overcrowding, and suggested that all those who were not able to make as thorough an inspection of the operation as they would have liked to, should return for the regular monthly open house on the last Friday evening of each month.

This month the open house will be next Friday, and next month it will be on February 28.

Crescent Seeks New Title In Harry East Polo Match

The Crescent Jewelers polo team, which last month won the Mexican championship, will engage in the four-team Harry East Tournament at the Santa Barbara fields this weekend.

Team Captain Vic Graber of Orinda heads the local club, which includes M. Lightman, Morrie Morrison and Tony Veen, all of Los Angeles.

Other teams entered are Menlo Park, San Mateo and Calgary, Canada.

The two winners of today's doubleheader will meet Sunday for the championship. A draw will determine opponents for opening day.

In a practice game last Sunday at Santa Barbara, the Crescent Jewelers dropped a 12-8 game to the fast Beverly Hills club. Bob Skene, a 10-goal performer, paced the winners with nine goals. Bill Atkinson added the other three.

Graber, rated at six goals, and Dr. Bill Linfoot, an eight-goaler, scored four apiece for the Crescent club. George Fletcher and M. Lightman rounded out the local team.

A return game between Beverly Hills and the Crescent Jewelers is scheduled at Santa Barbara February 2.

Record Number Of Fines by F&G

Wildlife protection personnel cited 12,902 persons for violations of fish and game laws during 1957, the Department of Fish and Game reported today. Fines totaled $378,945.70. Both arrests and fines set records for California.

In the previous year 10,498 arrests were made and $304,282.02 in fines were levied.

Half of al fines paid for fish and game violations remains in the county where the violation occurred. The other half goes into the state Fish and Game Preservation Fund from which the department operates.

The rise in arrests was attributed to a steadily increasing number of anglers and hunters in the field as California's population expands, and to stepped-up law enforcement through the addition of more wardens.

The "fishing without a license" category, as in past years, led the list of violations again in 1957, accounting for 3053 arrests compared to 2238 in the previous year.

In second place were grouped "other inland fisheries" violations with 2977 arrests, compared to last year's 2029. The most dangerous violation of them all, "loaded gun in car," still held still third place as it did last year; there were 1552 arrests for this offense in 1957 and 1548 in 1956.

Other leading categories: Clam and shellfish, 1046; deer, 806; pheasants 602; waterfowl, 449; public shooting and trespass, 418; commercial fishing, 341; hunting without license, 246; doves and pigeons, 246.

Don Grapplers Pin Pitt Pirates

The Acalanes wrestling team pulled an upset and a final match come - through performance recently when they edged Pittsburg 26-25.

Pitt started well enough winning the opening match with a 32 second fall, but ended up on the short end when they lost the heavyweight match on a fall.

Western Artists Will Exhibit in Richmond

The Society of Western Artists will hold its fourth annual exhibit at the Richmond Art Center February 8 to March 2. The show will be open daily except Saturday.

Last year's show drew the largest attendance of any Northern California art show. Entry blanks, which have already been mailed to members of the society, must be returned by tomorrow.

Battering Rams Puncture Knight Armor on Woods

The Pleasant Hill Rams took the Knight armor of Las Lomas apart at the seams on January 10 and butted their way to a 48-44 win.

The Ram Bee's playing wasn't as good as their big brothers and they were knocked down by the Knight's Squires 33-30.

THE RAM varsity edged the Knights 11-10 in the opening eight minutes of play then hustled and shot their way to a 26-20 half time lead.

The half time period fired both clubs and they battled to a 13-13 third stanza tie.

The final period really saw the fans and players in a constant turmoil as the pace quickened with each club going for the win.

THE KNIGHTS pecked away at the lead and two quick field goals by Knight forward Pete Ostrom found the Rams with a scant 45-44 lead.

The Knights committed two quick fouls in striving to get the all important ball and when Tom Larscheid hit two for two and Bill Locatelli made good on another, it sounded the death knell for the Knights as the buzzer sounded with them trailing 48-44.

Forward Sid Maestri had 14 points on seven field goals along with teammate forward Bill Locatelli who nabbed five field goals and four free throws.

Assessor Remind Boat Owners to Register Now

Boat owners are reminded by county assessor C. L. Dunklee that all boats must be registered during the month of January under California State Law.

Citations will be issued by policing authorities for failure to comply with the registration statutes.

If a boat has been previously registered by the Contra Costa County Assessor, complete the application for renewal on the third page of the pink slip and return it to the assessor.

Those who have not previously registered a boat should contact the assessor's office requesting the necessary forms to complete the registration, according to Dunklee.

OPERA STAR Jan McArt gets the signatures of Mayor John Connolly, left, and Dick Betzenderfer, newly installed president of Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, on a resolution commending the Pavilion Theatre project. The sale of stock in the theatre is being conducted in the area. Managers hope to have the theatre in operation in time for summer productions, this year.

Universal Night Plans Underway

Saint Mary's College alumni from coast to coast are completing plans for the celebration of Universal Saint Mary's night on February 5.

Alumni in 30 chapters will gather in banquet halls and clubs to salute their alma mater, renew old friendships, and listen to the radio program which is the traditional connecting link for this unique off-campus Homecoming.

Featured on the radio program will be Miss Irene Dunne, motion picture actress and alternate United States representative to the United Nations; Brother S. Albert, F.S.C., President of Saint Mary's; Edward C. Massa, alumni president; the Student Brothers Choir of St. Mary's, and Alumnus Frank Barton, NBC television and radio announcer

Banquets will be held out of state by chapters in New York City, Washington, D. C., Chicago, Denver, Salt Lake City, Reno, Seattle and Portland.

In California dinners are planned in Bakersfield, Eureka, Fresno, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Salinas and Stockton, as well as in the Bay area.

Local chapters will convene as follows:

San Francisco — Gold Room of the Sheraton Palace Hotel.

East Bay — Lake Merritt Hotel, Oakland.

Southern Alameda County — Castlewood Country Club, Pleasanton.

Mount Diablo — Casa Adobe, Concord.

Peninsula — Benjamin Franklin Hotel, San Mateo.

Doctors' Course Is Taking Entries

Contra Costa County physicians planning to enroll for the fifth Annual Postgraduate Course for Physicians sponsored by the Contra County Heart Association and the Alameda-Contra Costa Chapter of the American Academy of General Practice have until Februray 1 to register for the series which starts February 3.

The course consists of eight sessions held from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Contra Costa County Hospital in Martinez. The last session will be on April 7.

Dr. Charles Hart, Walnut Creek, chairman of the Contra Costa County Heart Association Postgraduate Committee said, "The purpose of the course this year, as in previous years, is to give local physicians latest information on advances in various phases of medical practice."

City Leaders Endorse Plans For New Theatre

A resolution endorsing the Pavilion Theatre project has been signed by Walnut Creek Mayor John Connolly and Chamber of Commerce President R. L. Betzenderfer. It was presented Monday by opera star Jan McArt.

The goal is completion of the theater in time for a 1958 summer season of musical comedy and light opera.

The resolution signed by Connolly and Betzenderfer said that Pavilion Theatre will give this area a much needed multi-purpose facility for cultural, sport, social and commercial use, will enhance the cultural life of the Greater Bay Area, will, by employing some local talent, provide an invaluable showcase for talented Northern California youngsters, and will be an attraction for both tourists and residents.

"THE MOST exciting aspect of Pavilion Theatre, in addition to the tremendous lift it can give cultural activities in the area, is the possibility of sharing ownership," said Miss McArt.

"Instead of being asked for contributions to a building fund, as usually happens in a project of this kind, Bay Area people have been offered an opportunity to own part of our community's cultural future," she declared.

Miss McArt referred to a stock issue announced recently by David Huenergardt, president of the California corporation developing Pavilion Theatre, in which 44,118 shares are available at $10 par value, for California ownership only.

Huenergardt said that subscribers of ten or more shares will be eligible for Gold Circle membership in the Pavilion Theatre Guild, withspecial box office privileges, an annual dress rehearsal gala, and other activities.

HUENERGARDT reported that the corporation would be capitalized at one million dollars but that only 44,118 shares of the ten dollar stock is offered at this time.

The amount raised in this fashion, he said, will provide ample funds for construction, initial maintenance and initiation of the first musical comedy and light opera season. From this amount not more than 15 per cent may be deducted for selling expenses, he said.

For each two shares of stock purchased, the Corporation will escrow one share of promotional stock for release to the promoting group only at such time as the venture fully proves itself.

Fiscal agent for the stock offering is Stephenson-Leydecker and Company, Oakland, and the Bank of America will serve as impound depository.

Location will be on Ygnacio Valley Road just east of Walnut Creek. The 2000 seat structure will be a distinctive geodesic aluminum dome, with provision for both theatre-in-the-round and conventional staging.

Headquarters for the project are at 1511 Cypress Street, Walnut Creek,

Peace Officer Training to Begin Soon

The Northern California Peace Officers Training Center which has been located at St. Mary's College for the last six years, will open for a final five-week session February 3 befroe moving to a new home.

Starting this fall, the program will be housed in the Concord Police Academy, now under construction.

The move was announced by the Contra Costa Junior College District which since 1952 has administered the program for several cooperating state and county agencies.

Application for the final session at St. Mary's — the nineteenth class — are being taken now by Charles E. Grant, junior college coordinator of police training.

Enrollment will be limited to 50, Grant said. All will be peace officers holding definite appointments, or men selected from eligibility lists by police and sheriffs' department heads.

With the exception of those living within commuting distance, the students will occupy dormitory quarters. Resident or nonresident, they must make arrangements to take Saturday examinations scheduled between 1 and 3 p.m. All officers must take the final examination at 8 a.m. on March 8, the last day of the school

Michael Czaja Is Art Group's Speaker, Monday

Michael Czaja of Walnut Creek is scheduled to talk on "Finding Ideas for Painting" and to exhibit about 60 of his travel sketches of Spain at the next general meeting of the Diablo Art Association on Monday at 8 p.m. at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center, Civic Drive.

Professor Czaja has recently returned from a sabbatical leave from the University of California, which he and his family spent in Europe.

They toured Italy and Spain by car, and then settled in Malaga on the southern coast of Spain for four and a half months. During this time Czaja accomplished the watercolor sketches which will be shown for the D.A.A. and which he will use as a basis for discussion.

Czaja is a professor of architecture at the University of California at Berkeley, and has also been active as a painter and artist for many years.

He has been a resident of Walnut Creek for nine years and has served as a member of the board of directors of the Valley Art Center for several years and was its president during 1956.

His talk will be the first in a series of 11 meetings planned by the association for the coming year. These meetings are open to the public and free of charge.

It is the aim of the group to brong to Walnut Creek an outstanding artist in his particular field each fourth Monday of the month.

Ike, Baldwin Speak at GOP At $100 Dinner

Congressman John F. Baldwin of the 6th District was one of only two congressmen in the nation chosen to speak with President Eisenhower Monday night at a $100-a-plate GOP dinner in Chicago. The nationwide TV-radio broadcast kicked off the Republican drive for control of Congress.

Baldwin noted that although he was defeated by a narrow margin in 1952, in 1954 all the Republican groups and many Democrats worked as a team to elect him. He commented that two years later the voters increased his margin by five times.

"I'm convinced," he said, "that with this kind of teamwork we can win in November."

To fry bacon, eggs, hamburgers and other foods while camping, all that's necessary is to lay a double sheet of foil over the grid. This provides a "hot plate" to cook on, and affords any desired degree of heat, if the fire has been built right.

Women Voters Begin Studies

The League of Women voters began their state study item on the Constitution with unit meetings on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. James Box, 1979 Faye Court, Pleasant Hill, on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Guy Harris, 1773 Georgia Drive, Concord; and yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Snook, 2660 Ross Place, Walnut Creek, and at the home of Mrs. Robert Karplus, 57 Overhill Rd., Orinda.

Mrs. Owen Nelson of Danville is chairman of the State Constitution study. Material presented at these meetings concerned the history of state constitutions, including that of California, the set-up of the California Legislature, and the power of the California Legislature over amendment.

Contributing to the research on this phase of the study were Mesdames L. M. Proctor of Concord, M. S. Nielsen of Pleasant Hill, and J. C. Snook of Walnut Creek.

"Doc" Cha-Kem-Co says...
FOR LUSCIOUS SUMMER FRUIT SPRAY NOW

Give your fruit trees a real clean-up spraying. Insects, and plant diseases like Peach Leaf Curl, Shot-Hole Disease and Brown Rot, can seriously damage trees and ruin fruit. Spray now. Don't wait!

Get both insects and plant diseases!

Use BORDOIL

Revolutionary fungicide; won't clog spray nozzles, won't stain nearby walls.

Safe to use on plants like apricots, which are susceptible to sulphur poisoning.

Use as a dormant spray against Peach Leaf Curl and Shot-Hole Disease which causes gumming and kills fruit wood. Or as an all-year spray for Powdery Mildew and Rust on Roses, Vegetables, and Flower Plants.

plus SCALE-O-KIL

As a clean-up dormant spray for control of fungous diseases and scale, overwintering forms of red spider and other insects.

SCALE-O-KIL used by itself on Citrus, Avocados, Camellias and other hardy evergreen plants kills scale with one or two sprayings instead of the 5 or 6 generally needed with common oil sprays.

Get your free copy of "Doc" Cha-Kem-Co's HORTICULTURAL GUIDE from your garden supply dealer. It gives you the answers to a thousand questions on gardening.

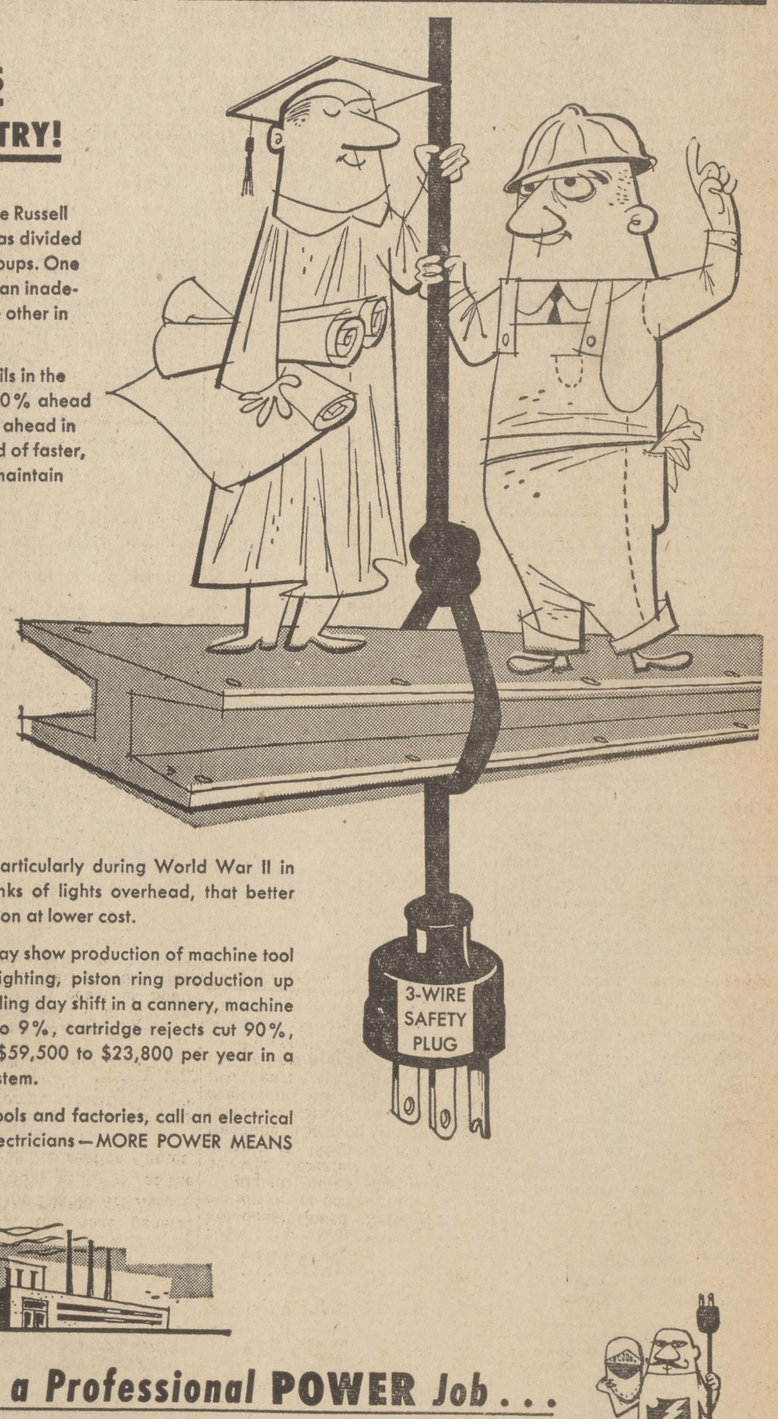
MORE POWER

... IN SCHOOLS AND INDUSTRY!

As a test, the fifth grade of the Russell School, Cambridge, Mass., was divided into two equally intelligent groups. One group studied for one year in an inadequately lighted classroom, the other in a well-lighted room.

At the end of the year the pupils in the well-lighted classroom were 10% ahead in general learning and 28% ahead in reading ability. This is the kind of faster, better education we need to maintain world leadership.



American industry proved, particularly during World War II in aircraft plants with solid banks of lights overhead, that better lighting means faster production at lower cost.

Case histories in factories today show production of machine tool parts up 15% with better lighting, piston ring production up 25%, night shift output equalling day shift in a cannery, machine shop rejects cut from 17% to 9%, cartridge rejects cut 90%, accident payments cut from $59,500 to $23,800 per year in a factory with a new lighting system.

For faster, better work in schools and factories, call an electrical contractor using qualified electricians—MORE POWER MEANS MORE EFFICIENCY!
